STADIUM RENOVATION AND NORTH END ZONE ADDITION

The latest transformation of Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium is underway. Substantial progress has been made and the project is on target for its scheduled completion in August 2018. In December 2016, on-site work began with the razing of the Broyles Athletics Center. After extensive site work, the steel framework of the north end zone expansion began to take shape. Construction will continue throughout the 2017 football season.

Fans attending Razorback Football games this fall will be able to take advantage of an additional video board in the south end zone and a new video board in the north end zone, located closer to the stadium seating. The additions will help ensure every fan in the stadium has a clear view of all the action on the field.

For more information on the Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium Renovation and North End Zone Addition visit DWRRS.com or contact the Razorback Foundation at (479) 443-9000.

PROJECTED COMPLETION

AUGUST 2018

CONSTRUCTION TIMELINE

On-site construction began in December 2016 and will remain underway throughout the 2017 football season. The project is scheduled to be completed in time for the 2018 football season.

PROJECT SUMMARY

North End Zone

The north end zone addition will include new suites, loge boxes, club seats, and club areas. The east and west concourses will connect to allow the flow of patrons around the stadium, as well as provide new concessions and restrooms. Expanded entrances will improve patron flow.

Stadium Updates

New public elevators will be installed at the northeast and northwest corners to service the existing east and west suites, club areas, and upper level seating. Existing suites and club areas will be updated. A new video board will be added at the south end of the stadium. Security and safety systems will be enhanced.

Frank Broyles Athletic Center

The Broyles Center will be rebuilt in the new north end to house the administrative offices.

COACHES & STAFF

BRET BIELEMA

5 EDGES

1) MENTAL & PHYSICAL TOUGHNESS
2) PLAY FAST & THROUGH THE WHISTLE
3) PLAY CLEAN (NO PENALTIES/BALL SECURITY/FOOTBALL IQ)
4) WIN CRITICAL AREAS (3RD & 4TH DOWN/REDZONE & GOAL LINE/KICK GAME)
5) WE EARN EVERYTHING

The University of Arkansas captivated the college football world by naming Bret Bielema the 32nd head coach in Razorback history in December 2012. Since arriving in Fayetteville, Bielema, who enters his fifth season on The Hill, has in turn captivated the passionate Razorback fan base and the state with the culture he is creating and the standards he is holding the program to.

Backed by his "Five Edges" to success, Bielema represented the qualities Arkansas was looking for: a leader of young men who holds student-athletes responsible both on and off the field and a coach who has a proven record of winning championships.

Over his 11 seasons as a head coach, Bielema has won three conference championships and coached 15 first-team All-Americans, numerous award winners, 42 NFL Draft picks and NFL superstars. Among the NFL players coached by Bielema are three-time Defensive Player of the Year J.J. Watt, Super Bowl winning quarterback Russell Wilson and No. 1 overall draft pick and 10-time Pro Bowler Joe Thomas.

Since his arrival and over 51 games, Bielema, who is the only head coach in Arkansas history to win back-to-back bowl games, has dramatically changed the direction of the program. From his first 20 games as head coach to his most recent 20, Arkansas has gone from tied for 14th in the SEC in wins over that span to a tie for fourth with a 13-7 mark. His three straight winning seasons at Arkansas have featured seven wins over ranked teams, including five against top 15 opponents, and three on the road.

Arkansas' pro-style offense has produced a different 3,000-yard passer each of the last two seasons, making it one of just nine FBS programs to do so, while Bielema has had a 1,000-yard rusher in each of his 11 seasons as a head coach. In fact, the Razorbacks are the only FBS program to have a different quarterback pass for 3,000 yards and a different running back go for 1,300 yards on the ground in each of the last two years.

Bielema's recruitment philosophy of building a program on "uncommon" men has yielded record-setting results in the classroom. Arkansas posted a 2.94 team GPA in the spring of 2015, the highest recorded mark on record. Helping build the record-setting team GPA were 40 student-athletes on the Southeastern Conference (SEC) Fall Academic Honor Roll, good for the most in the conference. During Bielema's four seasons, Arkansas leads the SEC with 139 student-athletes on the SEC Fall Academic Honor Roll, while the 40 honorees in 2015 and 39 in 2016 are the top two marks in the conference since he joined the league.

Behind his pro-style offense and developing student-athletes to their potential on and off the field, Bielema is building Arkansas into a program that prepares players for the NFL. Since his arrival, Bielema's philosophy has translated into 17 NFL draft picks in four seasons - good for fourth most in the SEC - while Arkansas is the only program to have a tight end selected in the last three NFL Drafts. After having four defensive players chosen in the 2015 NFL Draft - the school's most since 1989 - Arkansas saw five offensive players find NFL homes during the 2016 draft. The five offensive players taken were the second most from one school in the 2016 NFL Draft.

In 2016, Arkansas' offense featured the SEC's leading passer in Austin Allen and the regular-season rushing champion Rawleigh Williams III. Allen became just the fourth SEC quarterback since 2000 to open the season with multi-TD passes in seven straight games en route to leading the conference with 3,430 yards. Williams turned in an inspiring sophomore season after returning from a season-ending neck injury in 2015, leading the SEC in regular-season rushing yards while earning SEC Offensive Player of the Week honors three times and All-SEC first team status from the AP. Junior center Frank Ragnow was named Offensive Lineman of the Year by Pro Football Focus while fellow Trench Hog Dan Skipper ended his career with 47 consecutive starts under Bielema while earning All-SEC honors for the second straight year.

Arkansas picked up a trio of wins over top-15 teams in the regular season, good for a tie for third most in the nation. The first of those wins came at No.

15 TCU where Arkansas pulled out a dramatic 41–38 double–overtime win to snap the Horned Frogs' 14–game home win streak. The Razorbacks took down No. 12 Ole Miss, 34–30, for the third straight season and picked up their first win over SEC East champ No. 11 Florida, 31–10, for the first time since 1982. It marked the sixth time in program history that Arkansas has made a bowl game three straight years.

In 2015, Arkansas' off the field academic success was accompanied by on the field results to the tune of winning six of its last seven games and finishing in a tie for third place in the SEC West with a 5–3 mark. The Razorbacks displayed the resolve of their head coach by bouncing back from a tough start to pick up three SEC road wins and two overtime victories in conference action. Arkansas' wins at Tennessee, Ole Miss and LSU marked the first time in program history that the Razorbacks won three road games against teams that finished in the final Associated Press Top 25 poll.

Arkansas' surge in late October through November set up a Liberty Bowl matchup against Kansas State and one of Bielema's mentors head coach Bill Snyder. For the second–straight year, the Razorbacks capped the season with a win in front of a large contingent of Arkansas fans, defeating Kansas State 45–23. With the win, Bielema became the first coach in program history to win back–to–back bowl games while Arkansas was the only SEC West team to win a bowl game in both 2014 and 2015.

A key ingredient in Arkansas' success in 2015 was its balance and efficiency on offense. The Razorbacks led the SEC in scoring in conference games (34.4) while reaching 50–plus points four times during the final six regular season games, breaking the previous program single–season record of three set in 1910, 1916 and 2007. Arkansas was the only school in the SEC and one of eight nationally to have both a 3,000–yard passer and 1,000–yard rusher during the regular season. Brandon Allen's 30 touchdowns through the air and Alex Collins' program record 20 scores on the ground made them the only duo in the nation to hit those statistical peaks.

Individual records and postseason accolades stacked up during and after the 2015 season, highlighted by junior tight end Hunter Henry winning the John Mackey Award. A consensus first–team All–American, Henry led all FBS tight ends with 739 yards receiving, as Arkansas became the first program to have two players win the John Mackey Award. Collins became just the third player in SEC history to start his career with three straight seasons of 1,000–yards rushing en route to earning All–America third team honors from Athlon. Paving the way for Collins was senior offensive lineman Sebastian Tretola, who was the co–recipient of the Jacobs Blocking trophy as the SEC's top blocker. Tretola was named a first–team All–American by Sports Illustrated and a second–team All–American by three other outlets.

Henry was not only the first Razorback taken in the 2016 NFL Draft but also the first tight end selected when he went in the second round to the San Diego Chargers. Jonathan Williams (Buffalo Bills) and Collins (Seattle Seahawks) became just the second running back duo since Arkansas greats Darren McFadden and Felix Jones in 2008 to be picked in the top five rounds of the same NFL Draft when they both went in the fifth round. Less than 30 picks after Collins, both Tretola (Tennessee Titans) and Allen (Jacksonville Jaguars) came off the board in the sixth round to round out the program's most offensive players taken in the same draft since 2008.

Arkansas closed 2014 and its second season under Bielema by winning three of its final four games against traditional powers LSU, Ole Miss and Texas. The victories marked the first time in school history the Hogs have defeated those three teams in the same season. The Razorbacks finished 7–6 with a 31–7 victory over Texas in the AdvoCare V100 Texas Bowl, marking Arkansas' first winning season since 2011.

Bielema has always prided himself on a balanced offensive attack and that is exactly what the Razorbacks accomplished in 2014. Running backs Williams and Collins were the only FBS teammates to rush for more than 1,000 yards each and both players finished in the top five of the SEC in rushing totals. Allen threw for 20 touchdowns, the sixth most in a single season in school history, and his five interceptions, were the fewest by a Razorback quarterback since 1992.

A PERFECT FIT FOR RBU

Prior to the 2014 season, ESPN.com donned Arkansas as RBU of the 2000s. Coach Bielema is a perfect fit to continue that legacy and currently is the only active FBS head coach with a 1,000–yard rusher in each of the last 11 seasons (2006–Current).

Arkansas was the SEC's most improved defense in 2014, allowing just 19.2 points per game. With 11.9 points per game improvement from the previous season, the Razorbacks had the seventh-most improved defense in the nation. Arkansas became the first unranked team in college football history to post back-to-back shutouts over ranked opponents after blanking No. 20 LSU and No. 8 Ole Miss. Senior linebacker and consensus first-team All-SEC selection Martrell Spaight was the first Razorback to ever lead the SEC with 128 total tackles.

In his first season at Arkansas (2013), the Razorbacks had five student-athletes named Freshmen All-Americans: Collins, offensive linemen Denver Kirkland and Skipper, Henry and defensive tackle Darius Philon. Collins was named the SEC Freshman of the Year after he became the second Razorback freshman to rush for more than 1,000 yards in a season. Collins and McFadden are the only Razorbacks in school history to accomplish this feat and the only two Razorbacks to be named SEC Freshman of the Year.

In Bielema's seven seasons as head coach at Wisconsin, he had 17 players earn All-America honors, including 11 first-team All-Americans. He also coached two Outland Trophy winners, one Doak Walker Award recipient, one winner of the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award and one Lott IMPACT Trophy winner as well as finalists for numerous other individual awards, including the Heisman Trophy. In his final six years at Wisconsin, 21 Badgers were taken in the NFL Draft, including three in the first round.

Bielema, who served as Wisconsin's defensive coordinator for two seasons before becoming head coach, was on staff as UW compiled a 55-6 record at Camp Randall Stadium in his nine years. The Badgers won their first 16 home games under Bielema, the second-longest home winning streak in school history.

In 2012, Bielema guided Wisconsin to its third straight Big Ten championship and the Badgers became the first team to represent the Big Ten in three straight Rose Bowls since Michigan qualified following the 1976-78 seasons. In his final game at Wisconsin, Bielema led the Badgers to a 70-31 win over No. 14 Nebraska in the Big Ten Championship Game. Wisconsin became the second team to score 70 points in a conference championship game, matching the number scored by Texas in the 2005 Big 12 Championship Game. Wisconsin also had two 200-yard rushers in the same game for the first time in school history.

GROWING UP AND FAMILY

Bret was born in Silvis, Ill., and the family lived in Moline, part of the Quad Cities, before moving to a farm outside Prophetstown, which is 35 miles from Davenport, Iowa. Bret is the son of Arnie and Mrilyn Bielema and he was born on Jan. 13, 1970. His parents have been married for more than 50 years.

Bret's father (Arnie) ran a hog farm and worked at the Genesco Co-op, while his mother (Marilyn) directed a day care center. The Bielema family's 2,500 hogs outnumbered the human population of their hometown of Prophetstown (2,000).

Bret's mother (Marilyn) has battled cancer and she is where he says he gets his toughness. While at Wisconsin, Bret organized Football 101 for Women, an annual fundraising event to heighten the awareness of and raise funds to battle breast cancer. Through the instruction of Bret and his assistants, 300 women were exposed to the game's fundementals – with all proceeds benifiting the Madison affiliate of the Susan G. Komen for the Cure. Bret and his staff have continued the Football 101 for Women fundraiser here at Arakansas.

Bret was married on March 10, 2012, to his wife Jen. The two married after four years and on July 8, 2017, they welcomed their daughter, Briella Nichole, into the world. Briella arrived two days prior to SEC Media Days, which allowed the SEC's newest dad to introduce her to the college football world.

OVERALL RECORD: 93-50 CONFERENCE RECORD: 47-41

^Won Big Ten Championship Game *Did not coach Wisconsin in Rose Bowl, and loss is not reflected in record

Also during the 2012 season, running back Montee Ball broke the NCAA career records for total touchdowns and rushing touchdowns. Ball finished his career with 82 total touchdowns, breaking the previous record of 78, and 76 rushing touchdowns, besting the old record of 73. As a team, the Badgers finished in the top 25 in the country in rushing offense, total defense, scoring defense, rushing defense, pass efficiency defense and pass defense.

In 2011, the Badgers won the inaugural Big Ten Championship Game, defeating Michigan State 42–39 to advance to the Rose Bowl for the second straight season. Wisconsin, winners of the Leaders Division, finished the season with an 11–3 record and recorded 11 regular-season victories for just the third time in school history, all under Bielema's watch.

Wisconsin's high-powered offense ranked sixth in the country in scoring in 2011 behind quarterback Wilson and Ball. They became the first teammates in FBS history to throw at least 30 touchdowns and run for at least 30 scores in the same season. Ball, a first-team All-American, was a finalist for the Heisman Trophy and tied Barry Sanders' FBS record for touchdowns scored in a season with 39. He also broke Sanders' NCAA single-season scoring record with 236 points. Offensive linemen Peter Konz and Kevin Zeitler also earned first-team All-America recognition.

In 2010, the Badgers won a share of the 12th Big Ten Championship in school history and its first since 1999. UW tied a school record with seven conference victories and earned its first trip to the Rose Bowl since 1999. Wisconsin nearly became the first team in FBS history to have three running backs gain 1,000 yards in the same season as James White finished with 1,052 yards, John Clay had 1,012 and Ball ran for 996.

Wisconsin players took home several national awards in 2010, including the Outland Trophy (Gabe Carimi), the Lott IMPACT Trophy (J.J. Watt) and the Unitas Golden Arm Award (Scott Tolzien). Carimi, Clay, Lance Kendricks, John Moffitt and Watt were all named All-Americans, giving Wisconsin its most All-America honorees since 1999.

Wisconsin's success under Bielema translated to the classroom as well with 131 academic all-conference selections in seven seasons. UW had a school-record 25 members of the football team honored as Academic All-Big Ten in 2012, breaking the previous record of 22 set in 2009 and matched in 2010. Before 2009, the school record was 19, set in Bielema's second season.

Bielema guided Wisconsin to a 12–1 overall record and 7–1 mark in the Big Ten during his rookie year in 2006. Wisconsin capped that record-setting season with a 17–14 win over Arkansas in the 2007 Capital One Bowl. No previous Wisconsin team had won more than 11 games in a season. In addition, Bielema became just the third rookie head coach in NCAA FBS history to pilot his team to 12 victories. His efforts were rewarded when he was named the 2006 Dave McClain Big Ten Coach of the Year.

Bielema was Wisconsin's defensive coordinator in 2004 and 2005, a period in which the program produced a 19–6 record under Barry Alvarez. The 2004 Badgers were ranked sixth nationally in scoring defense and ninth in total defense. The 2005 club, which earned Wisconsin's first shutout since 1999, finished its 10-win season with a 24–10 victory over No. 7 Auburn in the 2006 Capital One Bowl, limiting the high-powered Tigers to just 236 yards of total offense.

Bielema was co-defensive coordinator at Kansas State under Bill Snyder in 2002 and 2003. The Wildcats were 22–6 during Bielema's time in Manhattan and finished in the top 10 nationally both seasons in scoring and total defense. The Wildcats won its first Big 12 title in 2003. Among Bielema's standout players at Kansas State were first-team All-American Josh Buhl, 2003 NFL second-round draft pick Terry Pierce and All-Big 12 second team selection Bryan Hickman.

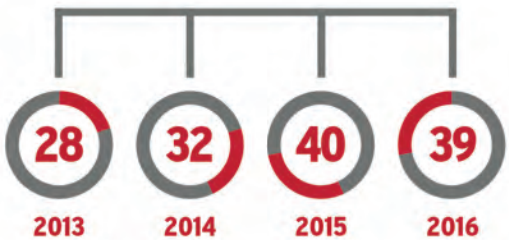

Prior to his years at Kansas State, Bielema spent nine seasons as an assistant coach at his alma mater, Iowa, where he worked for head coaches Hayden Fry and Kirk Ferentz. The 1997 Hawkeyes posted three shutouts and ranked No. 4 nationally in scoring defense.

Bielema lettered from 1989–92 at Iowa after joining the program as a walk-on. He earned a scholarship after his first year and was a member of Iowa's 1990 Big Ten championship team. A starter as a junior in 1991, he was a team co-captain as a senior. Bielema signed a free agent contract with the Seattle Seahawks and later completed his playing career with the Milwaukee Mustangs of the Arena Football League.

THE ULTIMATE GOAL

139 SEC FALL ACADEMIC HONOR ROLL PLAYERS

- Arkansas leads the SEC with 139 Fall Academic Honor Roll selections since coach Bielema took over in 2013, good for 12 more than the next closest school.
- Arkansas led the conference with 40 student-athletes on the SEC Fall Academic Honor Roll in 2015 and repeated as the league-leader in 2016 with 39 honorees.
- The 40 honorees in 2015 were the most by an SEC football program since coach Bielema joined the league, while 2016's total of 39 is the second-highest mark.
- Arkansas is the only program with 30-plus student-athletes on the SEC Fall Academic Honor Roll each of the last three years.

donned the SEC Graduate patch during the 2016 Belk Bowl. Arkansas' 21 graduates in the game were tied for fourth-most by teams participating in a bowl game. Last fall, Razorbacks who graduated from the university and earned a degree but still competed for their respective teams in their final year of NCAA eligibility were honored with a special patch on their jersey that brings to light their academic achievement on a national stage.

PATH TO THE PROS

Coach Bielema is one of just six active FBS head coaches to have a player selected in the NFL Draft each of the last 11 years.

Coach Bielema ranks tied for ninth among current FBS coaches with 42 NFL Draft picks over his 11 seasons as a head coach.

Since the 2007 NFL Draft, Bielema is one of three current FBS head coaches in the top 5 in both number of offensive lineman selected (11-T2nd) and defensive lineman (9 - T5th) drafted.

Coach Bielema has had an offensive or defensive lineman selected in the last 11 NFL Drafts.

Six tight ends have been taken in the NFL Draft over Bielema's 11 seasons, which is the most by one head coach over that span.

THE BIGGEST STAGE

Coach Bielema has had a former player in five of the last six Super Bowls, including the last four. Former Arkansas All-SEC defensive end Trey Flowers had 2.5 sacks and running back James White scored three TDs and set a Super Bowl record with 14 receptions in New England's win in Super Bowl LI. A total of seven of coach Bielema's former players have won a Super Bowl.

BIG BOYS MAKE BIG BUCKS

Highlighted by four players selected in the first round of the NFL Draft, coach Bielema has a knack for finding, developing and preparing offensive lineman for the next level. Bielema's 10 former offensive linemen currently in the NFL entering the 2017 season have a combined total current contract value over 250 million dollars. Of the 10 current offensive lineman, four rank among the top two highest paid players at their respective position.

DAN ENOS

Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks | 3rd Season

One of the most brilliant offensive minds in college football, Dan Enos enters his third season as Arkansas' offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach.

Enos joined head coach Bret Bielema's staff in January of 2015 after spending the previous five seasons as head coach at Central Michigan. He boasts more than 20 years of experience coaching skill position players and over 10 years of play-calling experience, including all five years at Central Michigan. He has tutored and developed many NFL stars, including offensive tackle Eric Fisher, who became the first Mid-American Conference player to be selected No. 1 overall in the NFL Draft in 2013 by the Kansas City Chiefs.

Backed by his pro-style offense that features a balanced attack, Enos has turned the Arkansas offense into a threat through the air and on the ground. Over his two seasons as OC, Arkansas is one of two FBS programs with 3,000-yard passer and 1,300-yard rusher in both 2015 and 2016. Even more impressive, the Razorbacks are the only program to accomplish the feat with a different quarterback and different running back in each of those seasons.

In his first season on The Hill, Enos helped Arkansas lead the SEC in scoring in SEC games, averaging 34.4 points. The Razorbacks scored 50 or more points four times over the final six regular season games, breaking the previous program single-season record of three set in 1910, 1916 and 2007.

The Razorback offense was wildly successful primarily due to the incredible balance between the passing and rushing attacks. Arkansas was the only school in the SEC and one of eight nationally to have both a 3,000-yard passer and 1,000-yard rusher during the regular season.

Under the direction of Enos in 2015, quarterback and Manning Award finalist Brandon Allen became the third player in program history to throw for 3,000 yards in a season (3,440) and became the Razorbacks' all-time leader in touchdown passes (64). Behind a program-best three 400-yard games, Allen finished his senior campaign with 3,440 yards passing and 30 touchdowns.

Allen was one of five offensive players to find an NFL home during the 2016 draft. The five offensive players taken were the second most from one school in the 2016 NFL Draft, highlighted by Hunter Henry being the first tight end taken and running backs Jonathan Williams and Alex Collins becoming just the third backfield duo to be selected in the first five rounds of the same draft since 2008.

The 2016 season ushered in a new starting quarterback with similar results, as Austin Allen led the SEC with 3,430 yards passing in his first season as a starter under Enos. Allen became just the fourth SEC quarterback since 2000 to throw for multiple touchdown passes in each of the first seven games of the season to finish second in the league with 25 TDs on the year.

Despite seeing two 1,000-yard rushers move onto the NFL following the 2015 season, Enos also turned another first-time starter in running back Rawleigh Williams III into an All-SEC first team choice. A three-time SEC Offensive Player of the Week in 2016, Williams led the SEC regular-season in rushing while his 1,360 yards on the year were bolstered by seven 100-yard performances.

Hired as Central Michigan's head coach in 2010, Enos led the Chippewas to bowl eligibility in each of his final three seasons. CMU passed for over 3,000 yards in four of his five seasons as head coach.

Prior to Central Michigan, Enos spent four seasons in a variety of offensive roles at Michigan State. He served as the Spartans' running backs coach from 2007 to 2009 and coached quarterbacks in 2006. He was named one of Rivals.com's Top 25 recruiters in the nation in 2009.

While at Michigan State, Enos was the position coach for three NFL running backs – Javon Ringer, Edwin Baker and Jehuu Caulcrick. Ringer was selected in the fifth round of the 2009 NFL Draft by the Tennessee Titans, while Baker was a seventh round draft pick by the San Diego Chargers in 2012 and Caulcrick played for the Buffalo Bills in 2010. Ringer led the nation in carries (390), scoring (132 points) and touchdowns (22) and ranked fourth in rushing (125.9 yards per game) in 2008 and was named a consensus first-team All-American.

In 2006, Enos mentored quarterback Drew Stanton, who earned team MVP honors after accounting for 2,252 total yards and 17 touchdowns as a senior. Following the season, Stanton was selected by the Detroit Lions in the second round of the NFL Draft.

A standout quarterback at Michigan State from 1987-90, Enos started two seasons and earned a 16-7-1 record (.688) as a starter, leading the Spartans to two bowl victories. He still ranks No. 13 in school history in passing yards (3,837) and completions (297). His .621 completion percentage still ranks fourth-best in Spartan history.

PAUL RHOADS

Defensive Coordinator/Secondary | 2nd Season

Arkansas head coach Bret Bielema announced the promotion of Paul Rhoads to defensive coordinator in January of 2017. Rhoads served as defensive backs coach during the 2016 season.

This will be Rhoads' third stint as a defensive coordinator and second in the SEC. Prior to joining Bielema's staff on Feb. 24, 2016, Rhoads spent 16 years as either a head coach or defensive coordinator at Iowa State, Pittsburgh and Auburn, including the previous seven seasons (2009-15) as Iowa State's head coach.

Over his nine combined seasons as a defensive coordinator at Auburn (2008) and Pittsburgh (2000-07), Rhoads' units ranked in the top 30 nationally in scoring defense six times and the top 12 for fewest yards three times.

A native of Ankeny, Iowa, Rhoads has been a part of 10 bowl games and has mentored six defensive backs that have been selected in the NFL Draft, highlighted by seven-time Pro Bowl selection and 2009 AFC Defensive Player of the Year Darrelle Revis. Revis was the 14th overall pick by the New York Jets in 2007 after playing for coach Rhoads when he was the defensive coordinator at Pittsburgh.

In 2016, Arkansas' defensive backs unit forced 10 interceptions, returning four of those for touchdowns. The four interceptions returned for scores were the program's most in one season since at least 1985, tying for fourth-most in the nation and second-most in the SEC. Three different Arkansas defensive backs recorded two interceptions apiece, including sophomore cornerback Ryan Pulley, who added 13 pass breakups to rank second in the SEC and tie for 12th nationally. In addition, senior cornerback Jared Collins tied for third in the SEC and 18th nationally with 12 pass breakups. Arkansas was one of just two schools in the conference with two players to rank in the top five of that category.

In his seven seasons at Iowa State, Rhoads led the Cyclones to three bowl game appearances. He recorded four wins over ranked opponents, including three on the road — half of the school's all-time road victories over ranked teams.

Taking over a program that had gone a combined 8-27 the previous three seasons, Rhoads' success in his first season at Iowa State was underscored by his place as the first Cyclone football coach to win seven games in his initial campaign since 1907 and the first ISU coach since 1931 to post a winning record in his initial season. His first season as head coach was highlighted by the program's first win at Nebraska in 32 years and a victory over Minnesota in the Insight Bowl.

In addition, the Cyclones registered six Big 12 road victories under Rhoads. Prior to his arrival, the Cyclones had won just nine conference road games in the previous 17 seasons. Under Rhoads' direction, four linebackers garnered All-Big 12 first team honors, while two also received All-America accolades.

Prior to returning to Iowa State, he spent the 2008 season as the defensive coordinator at Auburn under former head coach Tommy Tuberville, where his defense ranked 18th nationally in scoring, allowing 18.0 points per game and 178.8 yards passing to rank 22nd nationally.

From 2000-07, Rhoads served as defense coordinator at Pittsburgh for eight seasons. Five of his defenses ranked in the nation's top 30 for scoring and three in the NCAA's top 12 for fewest yards allowed. Additionally, 14 of his Panther defenders earned All-Big East first team acclaim. In 2006, The Sporting News named him the Big East's best defensive coordinator. His 2004 defense ranked ninth nationally with 17 interceptions and four defensive touchdowns, helping propel the Panthers to a Big East Conference championship and an appearance in the 2005 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl. Rhoads had five players selected to NFL drafts, including Revis (2007, Jets), Bernard "Josh" Lay (2006, New Orleans Saints), Shawntae Spencer (2004, San Francisco 49ers), Torrie Cox (2003, Tampa Bay Buccaneers), Ramon Walker (2002, Houston Texans).

Under Rhoads' guidance, Revis was a two-time All-American, two-time All-Big East selection and a 2006 Jim Thorpe Award semifinalist. Revis has spent a majority of his career with Jets while also spending one season with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and one with the New England Patriots. In 2014, Revis helped the Patriots win Super Bowl XLIX before returning to the Jets in 2015 as the highest-paid cornerback in NFL history with a five-year $70 million contract. Revis has made over $125 million in his career.

Offensive Line | 2nd Season

Kurt Anderson is in his second season as offensive line coach.

Anderson joined the Arkansas staff on Jan. 9, 2016 and took over a youthful offensive line that returned just two players with starting experience in senior left tackle Dan Skipper and junior center Frank Ragnow. A total of seven different linemen made starts during the 2016 season.

Skipper and Ragnow were part of a unit that helped pave the way for running back Rawleigh Williams III to capture the SEC regular-season rushing title and provided time for quarterback Austin Allen to lead the SEC in total passing yardage.

Skipper earned second-team All-America honors from the American Football Coaches Association and became just the sixth offensive lineman in program history to earn All-SEC status in two different seasons, while Ragnow was named the nation's best offensive lineman, best run blocker and a first-team All-American by Pro Football Focus (PFF) and was a second-team All-SEC choice by the Associated Press.

Prior to Arkansas, Anderson spent the 2013-15 seasons with the Buffalo Bills as assistant offensive line coach. In 2015, the Bills led the NFL in rush yards per game (152.0) and yards per rush (4.8), and were fifth in the AFC in total offense (360.9). Anderson served as the team's primary offensive line coach for the first six weeks of the season, the organization's first under head coach Rex Ryan. Center Eric Wood and left guard Richie Incognito were both named to the Pro Bowl, anchoring the NFL's 12th-youngest offensive line while paving the way for Pro Bowl running back LeSean McCoy. McCoy was one of three Buffalo players to rush for 500-plus yards in 2015, marking the first time that feat has been accomplished by the Bills since 1962.

Before joining the Bills, Anderson spent five seasons at Eastern Michigan University, primarily as the run game coordinator (2010-12). His time at Eastern Michigan started in 2008 as the tight ends coach before moving to the offensive line and run game coordinator where the ground attack saw immediate results. The Eagles posted the 14th-best run game in the nation in 2011, after accumulating 2,620 yards and 16 touchdowns on the ground. It marked just the second time in program history that Eastern Michigan had rushed for more than 2,000 yards in back-to-back seasons (2010-11).

A native of Chicago, Anderson joined Eastern Michigan after a two-year stint at his alma mater Michigan. While on staff with the Wolverines, Anderson spent the 2007 campaign as a graduate assistant coach for the offensive line, helping develop All-America tackle and the overall No. 1 pick in the 2006 NFL Draft Jake Long. In 2006, Anderson was the defensive quality control assistant coach. He helped develop current NFL players Lamar Woodley and Alan Branch.

Prior to his stint at Michigan, Anderson was an assistant coach at Indiana State where he worked with the offensive tackles and tight ends.

A standout along the offensive line at the University of Michigan, Anderson graduated in 2001 with a degree in sport management and communication from the Division of Kinesiology.

Anderson was a two-year letterwinner (2000-01) as the starting center and received the Hugh R. Rader Jr. Memorial Award as the team's top offensive lineman and was selected All-Big Ten honorable mention following the 2001 season. As a player and coach, Anderson has been involved in seven bowl games, highlighted by Michigan's 1998 Rose Bowl win that sealed the program's national championship.

Anderson and his wife Jennifer have five children: sons Hawken and Torin, daughter Dagny and twins Odin and Raina.

VERNON HARGREAVES

Inside Linebackers | 3rd Season

Vernon Hargreaves is in his third season on The Hill after being named linebackers coach on Jan. 20, 2015. He joined the Arkansas staff with 30 years of collegiate coaching experience, including the previous 17 years at the Football Bowl Subdivision level.

In those 17 seasons, Hargreaves' teams advanced to 14 bowl games, including two appearances in the BCS National Championship while at Miami. As the Hurricanes' linebackers coach, he helped Miami win the 2001 national championship and was the position coach for NFL stars Jonathan Vilma, Dan Morgan and D.J. Williams.

During his first two seasons at Arkansas, Hargreaves mentored linebacker Brooks Ellis into one of Arkansas' top tacklers and defensive leaders. Ellis, the team leader in tackles in 2015 and 2016, closed out his career with 31 straight starts, 290 tackles, including 22.5 for loss and 3.5 sacks, two forced fumbles, 13 pass breakups, and four interceptions. In the classroom, Ellis was a four-time SEC Academic Honor Roll member and became the first Arkansas football student-athlete to earn Academic All-America honors twice in a career. Ellis was named the 2016 SEC Scholar Athlete of the year and was honored as one of 12 finalists for the 2016 William V. Campbell Trophy, considered by many to be the "Academic Heisman."

Hargreaves also coached first-year middle linebacker De'Jon Harris to SEC All-Freshman team honors in 2016.

During Hargreaves' first year with the Razorbacks in 2015, he helped develop Ellis and freshman Dre Greenlaw into one of the SEC's top duos at linebacker. Ellis turned in 102 total tackles, which tied for ninth in the SEC. Greenlaw finished fifth nationally among FBS freshmen and tops among SEC rookies with 95 tackles and earned multiple freshman All-America honors for his efforts.

Prior to Arkansas, Hargreaves spent the previous two seasons at Houston where he coached linebackers. In 2014, he helped the Cougars finish 8-5, including a thrilling come-from-behind victory over Pittsburgh in the Lockheed Martin Armed Forces Bowl. The Cougars ranked second in the American Conference and 11th nationally with 30 forced turnovers and 15th nationally in scoring defense, allowing just 20.6 points per game.

In 2013, Hargreaves helped Houston rank as the third-most improved defense nationally after allowing just 21.8 points per game, 14.2 points per game lower than the previous season. Houston led the nation with 43 turnovers created and also led the country in turnover margin.

Prior to Houston, Hargreaves served as the special teams coordinator and defensive ends coach at South Florida. The Bulls finished second nationally in tackles for loss and fourth nationally in sacks during the 2011 season, in large part due to the outstanding play of Hargreaves' defensive ends. He helped South Florida claim its fourth bowl victory in school history with a win in the 2010 Meineke Car Care Bowl over Clemson.

Hargreaves also spent three seasons as the special teams coordinator and defensive ends coach at East Carolina from 2007 to 2009. He helped defensive end C.J. Wilson earn back-to-back Conference USA Defensive Player of the Year awards in 2008 and 2009. Wilson was selected by the Green Bay Packers in the 2010 NFL Draft and started at defensive end for the Packers in Super Bowl XLV. The Pirates played in a bowl game in all three seasons Hargreaves was on the coaching staff.

From 1998 to 2005, Hargreaves was the linebackers coach at Miami, where he helped lead the Hurricanes to a BCS National Championship title in 2001 and another BCS National Championship game appearance in 2002. At Miami, Hargreaves helped mold Vilma, Morgan, Williams, Rocky McIntosh and Nate Webster into NFL linebackers. Seven of his linebackers at Miami were selected in the NFL Draft, including Morgan who won the Butkus Award, Nagurski Trophy and the Bednarik Award in 2000.

The 2001 Hurricanes were one of the best defensive units in the history of college football, allowing just 9.4 points per game and only 138.2 passing yards per contest. Hargreaves helped Miami to a perfect 12-0 season, culminating in the 2002 BCS National Championship game win over Nebraska.

Hargreaves finished his playing career at Connecticut in 1983 where he was a two-time All-American. He earned all-conference honors twice during his career and was selected a team captain as a senior. His 393 career tackles still ranks sixth all-time in school history. Hargreaves was named a member of UConn's 100th anniversary team.

The New Haven, Connecticut, native earned his bachelor's degree in sociology from Connecticut in 1986. He and his wife, Jackie, have three children: Carina, Vernon III and Chanelle. Vernon III played cornerback at Florida from 2013-15 and was selected by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers as the 11th pick in the first round of the 2016 NFL Draft.

BARRY LUNNEY JR.

Tight Ends | 5th Season

Barry Lunney Jr., a former Arkansas starting quarterback, is entering his fifth season as tight ends coach at his alma mater. A member of head coach Bret Bielema's first staff at Arkansas, Lunney has strengthened the program's reputation as #TEU over his four years.

Lunney's work has not only resulted success as Razorbacks, but also caught the interest of NFL personnel. Highlighted by Hunter Henry being the first tight end taken off the board in the 2016 NFL Draft, Arkansas is the only program in the country to have a tight end taken in each of the last three drafts dating back to 2015.

From 2014 to 2016, Lunney helped develop Henry into the best tight end in the nation. On Dec. 9, 2015, that became official when Henry was named the John Mackey Award winner following his junior season. Henry joined 2010 recipient D.J. Williams to make Arkansas the only school to produce multiple winners in the award's history.

Lunney serves as the team's primary recruiter in the state of Arkansas. The Razorbacks signed 10 players from the Natural State in the 2015 recruiting class, the most in-state signees since 2008. Arkansas' haul also featured the nation's best class of tight ends.

After earning All-SEC second team honors in 2013 and 2014, Henry won the John Mackey Award and was a consensus first-team All-American as a junior in 2015. He led all Football Bowl Subdivision tight ends with 739 receiving yards on 51 receptions — each career highs — and hauled in three touchdown passes. In addition, Henry and tight end mate Jeremy Sprinkle combined for a league-best 1,128 receiving yards and eight touchdowns. The 1,128 receiving yards are the most by an Arkansas tight end corps in program history.

A fellow Arkansas native, Henry was selected with the 35th overall pick by the San Diego Chargers in the second round of the 2016 NFL Draft. A year later, Sprinkle followed Henry's footsteps and was taken by the Washington Redskins in the fifth round of the 2017 NFL Draft. During his senior season, Sprinkle set the Arkansas record for career TDs by a tight end with 11 and was also invited to play in the Reese's Senior Bowl.

Lunney also oversaw the transition of AJ Derby from quarterback to tight end. Derby finished fifth in the SEC with 303 receiving yards during the 2014 season and was a sixth round draft choice of the New England Patriots despite playing the position for less than a year.

In his first season coaching the Razorback tight ends, Lunney led Henry to second-team All-SEC, Freshman All-America and SEC All-Freshman Team recognition. Henry's receiving yards ranked third in the nation among freshman tight ends, and he was the only freshman tight end in the SEC with a 100-yard receiving game. Henry also led SEC tight ends and ranked third in the conference by gaining a first down on 78.6 percent of his receptions.

Before returning to the Razorbacks, Lunney served as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Bentonville High School from 2005-13.

Lunney spent two seasons as the co-offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at San Jose State. During his tenure, the offense produced six all-conference performers, and tight end Courtney Anderson was selected by the Oakland Raiders in the 2004 NFL Draft.

Prior to that, Lunney spent three seasons at Tulsa, first working with quarterbacks in 2000 and 2001 and then moving to wide receivers in 2002. In 2000, quarterback Josh Blankenship ranked fifth in the WAC in total offense and receiver Don Shoals led the conference and ranked 11th in the NCAA in receptions per game.

His coaching career began with two seasons as a graduate assistant at Arkansas. In 1998, Arkansas won its first eight games and rose to No. 9 in the national rankings on the way to sharing the SEC Western Division title and earning a berth in the Citrus Bowl. Lunney served as the Razorbacks' running backs coach for the bowl game and throughout the spring of 1999. Arkansas spent the majority of the 1999 season in the top 25 of the national rankings and finished the year with a 27-6 win over No. 14 Texas in the Cotton Bowl.

As a player for the Razorbacks, Lunney lettered from 1992-95, starting 40 games at quarterback, and was a team captain on the 1995 team that played in the SEC Championship Game for the first time in school history. In his first game as the starting quarterback, he led Arkansas to an upset win at No. 4 Tennessee. He left Arkansas holding school career records for passing yards, passing touchdowns, pass completions, pass attempts and total offense plays. Lunney also played baseball at Arkansas. He was drafted by the Montreal Expos out of high school in 1992 and by the Minnesota Twins in 1996 and played one season of minor league baseball in the Twins organization.

He and his wife, Janelle, have two sons, Luke and Levi. His grandfather, John lettered at Arkansas from 1946-49. His father, Barry Sr., recently retired after 28 years as a high school football coach in Arkansas, winning eight state championships at Bentonville HS and Fort Smith Southside HS.

REGGIE MITCHELL

Running Backs | 2nd Season

A coaching veteran with over 30 years of experience, Reggie Mitchell joined head coach Bret Bielema's staff on Feb. 12, 2016, and enters his second season as the team's running backs coach.

Over his career, Mitchell has coached or recruited 33 players that have been selected in the NFL Draft, including six first round picks.

Mitchell's experience and direction was exactly what Arkansas' youthful backfield needed in 2016, as sophomore Rawleigh Williams III and true freshman Devwah Whaley combined for just under 2,000 yards and 15 touchdowns on the ground. Highlighted by seven 100-yard performances, Williams finished as the SEC regular-season rushing leader and his 1,360 rushing yards for the year helped him earn three SEC Offensive Player of the Week nods and All-SEC first team status from the Associated Press. In total, Arkansas' running backs produced nine 100-yard rushing games and totaled over 2,500 yards of total offense.

Prior to Arkansas, Mitchell spent the last six seasons at Kansas where he was the running backs coach and the program's recruiting coordinator the last two years.

Under Mitchell's guidance, Kansas running back James Sims completed his career third on the KU all-time rushing chart with 3,592 yards and 34 touchdowns. He became the first player in Kansas history to rush for back-to-back 1,000-yard seasons (2012-13), highlighted by leading the Big 12 in rush yards per game (112.6) in 2012. Sims' 2012 performance led to All-Big 12 second team accolades before earning first team All-Big 12 honors as a senior in 2013 when he followed his breakout season with 1,110 yards. In 2012, Simms made up half of Kansas' All-Big 12 backfield along Tony Pierson, who was also recognized by the Associated Press and league head coaches after totaling over 1,000 yards from scrimmage.

Prior to returning to Kansas, Mitchell was the assistant head coach/recruiting coordinator/running backs coach at Illinois (2005-09). He spent five years in Champaign, Illinois, helping the Illini win Big Ten rushing titles in 2006 and 2007, while the offense recorded consecutive seasons with 5,000 yards of total offense. The 2006 Illini led the Big Ten and ranked 10th in the NCAA with 188.8 rushing yards per game while the 2009 squad was 18th nationally at over 200 yards per contest on the ground.

In 2007 at Illinois, Mitchell's running backs room featured eventual NFL first round pick Rashard Mendenhall (Pittsburgh Steelers, 2008), who set school records for single-season rushing yards (1,681) and rushing touchdowns (17) en route to being named the Big Ten Offensive Player of the Year.

Mitchell was at Michigan State from 1999-2004, mentoring the wide receivers in 1999 and the running backs for five seasons. He also served as the Spartans' recruiting coordinator from 2000-04. While in East Lansing, Michigan, Mitchell tutored two NFL first-round draft picks in wide receiver Plaxico Burress (Pittsburgh Steelers, 2000) and running back T.J. Duckett (Atlanta Falcons, 2002), plus recruited a third in wide receiver Charles Rogers, the No. 2 selection overall by the Detroit Lions in the 2003 NFL Draft.

In 2001, Duckett rushed for 1,420 yards — the fifth-best single-season total in school history. Duckett, MSU's fifth all-time leading rusher with 3,379 career yards, became the first Spartan running back to be drafted in the first round (No. 18 overall) since Lorenzo White (Houston Oilers) in 1988. In 1999, Mitchell coached the wide receivers, including Burress, who set then-MSU single-season records for receptions (66), receiving yards (1,142) and touchdown catches (12).

The first of Mitchell's three straight Big Ten stops came at Minnesota where he coached the running backs in 1997 and 1998.

Mitchell worked with the Jayhawk defensive lineman during his first stint at Kansas, focusing on the defensive ends from 1991-94. He then switched to the offensive side of the ball to coach running backs in 1995 and 1996. While Mitchell was at KU, the Jayhawks played in the 1992 and 1995 Aloha Bowls. KU produced four winning seasons in his tenure, after recording just one in the previous 11 years.

He began his coaching career at Central Michigan (1983) before heading to Ferris State (1984), Michigan (1985), Western Michigan (1986) and Kent State (1987) before establishing himself at Kansas.

A four-year starter as a running back at Central Michigan from 1978-81, Mitchell rushed for 2,394 yards in his career and helped the Chippewas win back-to-back Mid-America Conference (MAC) titles in 1979 and 1980. He rushed for 1,068 yards as a senior.

Mitchell earned a bachelor's degree in parks and recreation from Central Michigan in 1984. He has three children, son Kaeman and daughters Karena and Jennifer.

JOHN SCOTT JR.

Defensive Line | 1st Season

Making the transition to a 3-4 defense following the 2016 season, Arkansas head coach Bret Bielema turned to the NFL to fill his defensive line coach opening, hiring New York Jets defensive line assistant coach John Scott Jr. on Feb. 7, 2017.

Scott Jr. spent the last two seasons with the Jets, beginning as a defensive quality control coach in 2015 before being promoted to defensive line assistant coach. Prior to his time in the NFL, Scott Jr. spent time as a defensive line or outside linebackers coach at Texas Tech, Georgia Southern, Missouri State, Norfolk State and his alma mater Western Carolina.

Running a 3-4 as its primary defense, the Jets led the NFL in rushing touchdowns allowed and red zone defense in 2015, while finishing second in rushing defense and fourth in total defense. Both defensive tackle Muhammad Wilkerson and cornerback Darrelle Revis, who played for defensive coordinator Paul Rhoads at Pitt, earned Pro Bowl honors. Scott Jr. was promoted to defensive line assistant prior to the 2016 season in which the Jets finished fifth in the AFC in rush defense and rushing touchdowns allowed. Defensive tackle Leonard Williams earned a Pro Bowl nod.

Scott Jr. mentored and coached a trio of defensive lineman at Texas Tech that worked their way into the NFL. In his first season, he tutored Kerry Hyder to All-Big 12 honors and an invite to the NFL Scouting Combine. In his first full season with the Detroit Lions in 2016, Hyder led the team with 8.0 sacks to go along with 36 tackles. Branden Jackson had his best season under Scott Jr. in 2014 as a junior before getting an invite to the 2016 NFL Scouting Combine. Jackson recently finished his rookie season with the Oakland Raiders.

Prior to joining Texas Tech, Scott Jr. spent three seasons (2010-12) as the defensive line coach and special teams coordinator on three Georgia Southern teams that advanced to the semifinals of the FCS Playoffs. Along the defensive line, he mentored two All-Americans, including Brent Russell, who was an All-American all three years under Scott Jr. and finished as the program's all-time sack leader. In 2011, the Georgia Southern defensive line featured Russell, All-American Roderick Tinsley and All-Southern Conference selection John Douglas. In 2010, Russell was a finalist for the Buck Buchanan Award for the nation's top defensive player at the Championship Subdivision level.

Scott Jr. was named defensive line coach at Georgia Southern in January 2010 after one season coaching outside linebackers at Missouri State and three seasons at Western Carolina coaching defensive ends and outside linebackers. As defensive line coach at Norfolk State for the 2005 season, Scott Jr. helped the Spartans achieve a No. 12 national ranking in passing defense. That season, Norfolk State allowed just over 158 yards per game. The Greer, South Carolina, native attended the NCAA's Minority Coaches Academy in 2008 after being selected from a pool of 400 applicants.

A 2000 graduate of Western Carolina and four-year Catamount letterman, Scott returned to coach at his alma mater in 2006. An All-Southern Conference choice at defensive end in 1998, Scott Jr. had 17 tackles for loss. His career total of 31 tackles for loss ranks 10th in Western Carolina history.

After earning his bachelor's degree in communications from Western Carolina, Scott Jr. played three years of professional football, including two years with the Greensboro (N.C.) Prowlers of the Arena Football League 2. He was named the team's Defensive Player of the Year in 2000.

While playing for the Greensboro Prowlers, Scott Jr. gained coaching experience at the high school level as defensive line coach at West Davidson High School in 2001. Scott Jr. then went to Louisiana-Lafayette as a graduate assistant for two years, serving as a defensive line graduate assistant. He completed his master's degree in education at Louisiana-Lafayette in 2006.

MICHAEL SMITH

Wide Receivers | 5th Season

Michael Smith, a record-setting receiver at Kansas State who has earned the reputation as one of the best recruiters in college football, enters his fifth season as Arkansas' wide receivers coach. Smith joined head coach Bret Bielema on his first staff at Arkansas in 2013.

A native of New Orleans, Smith has been very instrumental in making Arkansas a top choice for high school football players from the state of Louisiana. A total of 14 players have signed with Arkansas from the Pelican State from the last four recruiting classes. Out of the seven Louisiana players from the first three recruiting classes that didn't redshirt in 2016, six started at least one game while linebacker De'Jon Harris was named to the SEC All-Freshman team.

Smith's work in his position room and on the field with the wide receivers has helped Arkansas become one of just three SEC teams to pass for over 3,300 yards each of the last two seasons (2015-16). Smith took over a wide receivers group in 2013 that had lost four players to the NFL Draft over the previous two years and turned it back into one of the strengths of the program.

During the 2016 season, the Razorback wideouts featured three players with over 1,000 career receiving yards, including two players with over 100 career receptions. Named the top slot receiver in college football by Pro Football Focus following the season, Jared Cornelius equaled an Arkansas single-season record with three straight 100-yard receiving games, while Keon Hatcher's eight TD grabs ranked fifth in the SEC and Drew Morgan's 65 receptions tied for fourth in the SEC.

Following their senior campaigns in 2016, Hatcher and Morgan both earned invites to the NFL Combine, making Arkansas one of just 12 programs with two wide receivers at the event. An All-SEC selection in 2015, Drew Morgan turned in the third and fourth-best reception totals in program single-season history over his last two years, while Hatcher's 19 career receiving TDs finished fourth all-time at Arkansas.

In 2015, Smith's wide receivers unit totaled 22 touchdowns and more than 2,000 yards, despite numerous injuries throughout the year.

Known for getting the most out of each of his players, Smith's wide receivers unit displayed its depth during the 2015 season, battling through numerous injuries. A total of 10 different receivers started at least one game while Smith helped turn Morgan into one of the top receivers in the conference. Morgan opened the 2015 campaign as the No. 3 or No. 4 wide receiver, but went on to total three 100-yard receiving games during SEC play – all away from home – and lead the conference with 10 touchdown catches during the regular season. Arkansas' leading receiver, Morgan finished with 63 receptions for 843 yards. His 10 touchdown catches tied for second in the SEC and 17th nationally and also equaled the third-most in program single-season history.

Smith, who was named one of the top 10 recruiters in the Big 12 Conference in 2012 by Rivals, spent the first 11 years of his coaching career at Kansas State before he returned in 2009 as the Wildcats' wide receivers coach.

At Kansas State, Smith helped the Wildcats capture their second Big 12 title and play in the Fiesta Bowl in 2012, as the Wildcats posted an 11-2 record and finished the year ranked No. 12 in the AP poll.

Smith helped lead Arizona to a 2008 Las Vegas Bowl win over BYU.

At Rice, Smith helped the Owls to a 7-6 record in 2006, advancing to their first bowl game in 45 seasons.

Smith has coached three of the top 10 career rushing leaders in Kansas State history in Darren Sproles, Eric Hickson and Mike Lawrence. He also directed a running back to the single-season rushing record in three of his last five seasons at Kansas State during his first tenure, including Sproles, a first team All-American.

After his playing career, Smith returned to Kansas State as a student assistant. As a graduate assistant in 1995 and 1996, Smith assisted Greg Peterson with the receivers and helped tutor wideouts Kevin Lockett and Mitch Running, who became just the fifth receiving tandem in Big Eight history to snag at least 50 passes in the same season.

Throughout his coaching career, Smith has been the position coach for 15 NFL players, highlighted by Sproles who is a three-time Pro Bowl selection and the NFL single-season record holder for all-purpose yards.

As a player, Smith was one of the Big Eight's all-time great receivers. He concluded his playing career as the Big Eight's second-leading receiver with 179 receptions, trailing just All-American Hart Lee Dykes. The total of 179 catches ranked 40th in NCAA history at the time. Smith was named a third-team All-American in 1991, honorable mention All-American in 1989 and a two-time All-Big Eight selection (1989 and 1991). He played for the Kansas City Chiefs in 1992.

His career total of 2,457 receiving yards was third-best in Big Eight history behind Dykes and 1972 Heisman Trophy winner Johnny Rodgers. The total was bolstered by nine 100-yard receiving games, which was a school record at the time. He led the Big Eight as a sophomore in 1989 and was seventh in the nation with 70 catches for 816 yards.

Smith graduated from Kansas State in 1995 with a bachelor's degree in social science. He and his wife, Karyn, have four children: Kylie, Kenzie, Kason and Kamryn. Kylie was an outfielder on the Razorback softball team and graduated in May of 2017.

CHAD WALKER

Outside Linebackers | 1st Season

Chad Walker was named the program's outside linebackers coach on Feb. 10, 2017.

Less than a week removed from coaching in Super Bowl LI, Walker became the second addition to Arkansas' defensive staff following the 2016 season. He spent the previous two seasons with the Falcons as defensive assistant/linebackers coach in 2016 and defensive assistant/defensive backs coach in 2015. His two-year run in Atlanta was his second stint in the NFL after spending three seasons with the Miami Dolphins from 2005-07 as a defensive quality control coach.

Walker's coaching career started as a graduate assistant at Louisiana-Monroe and West Virginia before returning to his home state where he was a defensive assistant on LSU's 2003 National Championship team. The New Orleans native's collegiate coaching background also includes three years at Bryant University (2008-10), two years as defensive coordinator at Mississippi College (2011-12) and two years as defensive quality control assistant at Oklahoma (2013-14).

In his first season in Atlanta, the Falcons' went from 32nd in the NFL in total defense to 16th, while finishing in the top 10 in interceptions and red zone takeaways. This past season en route to their first NFC Championship since 1998, the Falcons tied for the NFL lead with five defensive touchdowns while outside linebacker Vic Beasley led the league with 15.5 sacks and six forced fumbles and Deion Jones was one of three linebackers named to the 2016 NFL All-Rookie team. Jones was one of two Falcons rookies to start at linebacker in 2016, joining De'Vondre Campbell.

Over Walker's two seasons, cornerback Desmond Trufant (2015) and Beasley (2016) were named to the Pro Bowl.

His two seasons at Oklahoma featured an 11-2 record in 2013 that included a win over Alabama in the Sugar Bowl. During his three seasons as DC at Mississippi College before landing in Oklahoma, Walker coached two first-team All-Americans in cornerbacks Keith Villafranco and Jarrod Craine.

Prior to Mississippi College, Walker served as defensive backs coach at Bryant from 2008-09 before being promoted to defensive coordinator in 2010. During that time, he helped the Bulldogs to a 19-14 record over its first three years as an FCS program.

With Walker at the helm of the defense, the Bulldogs finished 7-4 in 2010 with the two biggest wins in school history over Fordham and No. 25 Robert Morris. Bryant led the Northeast Conference (NEC) in pass efficiency defense and third down defense, while ranking second in the league in turnovers gained. The Bulldogs also returned four interceptions for touchdowns on the year. Walker guided safety Max Machado to Northeast Conference Defensive Rookie of the Year honors, while cornerback Samad Wagstaff and linebacker Jason Riffe, who led the league with seven sacks, were All-NEC selections.

In 2009, Walker coached the defensive backs as the Bulldogs tallied 35 pass breakups and led the NEC in scoring defense at 17.4 points per game along with being ranked fourth nationally in pass defense. Individually, safety Andre White earned All-NEC recognition.

In his first season at Bryant, the Bulldogs finished 7-4 — the second-best record ever for a team transitioning from Division II to Division I. Bryant tied for 12th nationally with 30 turnovers gained and 29th nationally in scoring defense.

From 2005-07, Walker spent three seasons in the NFL with the Miami Dolphins as a quality control coach, working with all positions on defense. Walker worked with the defensive line in 2007 as the Dolphins finished fourth in the NFL in pass defense. In 2006, Walker helped with the linebackers as Miami ranked fourth in the NFL in total defense and fifth in pass defense. That season, linebacker Zach Thomas was elected to the Pro Bowl, while defensive end and recent NFL Hall of Fame first ballot selection Jason Taylor was named NFL Defensive Player of the Year.

Before moving to the NFL, Walker spent two seasons as a defensive assistant on Nick Saban's staff at LSU, handling quality control duties. During that time LSU won the 2003 SEC Championship and BCS National Championship. The Tigers led the nation in total defense in 2003 and ranked third in 2004.

A native of New Orleans, Walker began his coaching career as a student assistant at LSU in 2000 after graduating with a bachelor's degree in education with a concentration in kinesiology.

BEN HERBERT

Head Strength and Conditioning Coach | 5th Season

A critical piece to head coach Bret Bielema's vision for the Arkansas football program, Ben Herbert is in his fifth season as head strength and conditioning coach. In just four years, Herbert's passion and relentless desire to get the best out of his student-athletes has impacted results in the weight room and on the field.

With a focus on preparing Arkansas student-athletes for the next level, Herbert has helped develop 17 Razorbacks who were selected in the last four NFL Drafts, good for the fourth-most in the SEC during that span.

Herbert has worked with six All-Americans and 16 All-SEC performers since arriving in Fayetteville, including 2015 John Mackey Award winner Hunter Henry as the nation's top tight end and offensive lineman Sebastian Tretola who was the recipient of the Jacobs Blocking Trophy presented to the SEC's best blocker in 2015.

In 2016, Herbert's training helped guide running back Rawleigh Williams III to recovery from a season-ending neck injury suffered during the 2015 season. Williams' triumphant return to the field less than a year later saw him put together a breakout sophomore season in which he captured the SEC regular-season rushing title and finished with 1,360 yards on the ground.

The results of Herbert's training regimens were evident in the latter stretches of each of the 2014 and 2015 seasons, as Arkansas closed the 2015 campaign by winning six of its last seven games and three of its last four in 2014. Included in those late season surges were a pair of dominating bowl wins over Texas (Texas Bowl) and Kansas State (Liberty Bowl) in which the Razorbacks outscored their opponents by a combined 76-30 margin. Arkansas was the only SEC West program to win a bowl game in both 2014 and 2015.

Herbert helped grow the 2014 and 2015 Arkansas starting offensive lines into the largest in any level of football, including the NFL. Behind their devastating offensive lines, the Razorbacks became the only FBS team with a pair of 1,000-yard rushers in 2014 and the only SEC program in 2015 with a 3,000-yard passer and 1,000-yard rusher.

Following the 2014 season, Herbert earned the profession's highest honor when he was named the Master Strength and Conditioning Coach (MSCC) by the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches association (CSCCa) in March 2015. At age 35, Herbert became the youngest coach to ever earn the MSCC honor.

Herbert joined the Razorbacks after spending 11 seasons working in strength and conditioning at Wisconsin, including the last four as head strength and conditioning coach. He started his career as an intern during the 2002 season following his playing days at Wisconsin and was promoted to assistant strength and conditioning coach in 2003. He was involved in all aspects of sports conditioning for the football team during his time with the Badgers.

In his 15 total seasons at Wisconsin, he was part of 14 bowl appearances and five Big Ten championships. The Badgers claimed three straight Big Ten titles and became the first Big Ten team to appear in three straight Rose Bowls since Michigan following the 1976-78 seasons by making the trip to Pasadena following the 2010, 2011 and 2012 seasons.

During his time with Wisconsin, Herbert helped develop 41 NFL draft picks, including six first round selections. Defensive end J.J. Watt and offensive tackle Gabe Carmini were both taken in the first round of the 2011 draft, and offensive guard Kevin Zeitler was picked 27th overall by the Cincinnati Bengals in 2012. The Badgers also produced five national individual award winners, including 2012 Doak Walker Award recipient Montee Ball, 28 All-America honors and 48 All-Big Ten first team selections in his 11 seasons on staff in Madison.

Wisconsin's work with Herbert was evident in the fourth quarters of games, when the Badgers outscored opponents 435-309 from 2009-12. The team's strength and conditioning work also was apparent late in the season, as Wisconsin was 15-5 in games played in the month of November or later during Herbert's four years as head strength and conditioning coach. The Badgers also outscored its opponents 856-442 in games played in November, December and January.

Herbert was a four-year letterman on the defensive line at Wisconsin, which won two Rose Bowls during his time as a student-athlete. He holds the Wisconsin bowl record for most tackle for loss and sacks yardage and is tied for the school's bowl record for sacks after collecting 2.0 sacks for 20 yards lost in the 2000 Rose Bowl victory over Stanford.

A native of Pittsburgh, Herbert earned his bachelor's degree from Wisconsin in 2002. He is a certified member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA) and the CSCCa.

Herbert and his wife, Kelly, have two sons, Charlie and Thomas.

MARK TAURISANI
Assistant Athletic Director of Football Operations

Mark Taurisani is in his fifth season at Arkansas. He was promoted to Assistant AD of Football Operations in 2014 and sits on the athletic department's senior and executive staffs.

As Assistant AD of Football Operations, Taurisani oversees every aspect of the Razorback football team including team travel, budget, personnel, staffing, day-to-day operations, football-related events and bowl game travel. He also serves as the football program's liaison to university administration and all other units within the athletic department.

Taurisani has served as a member of the Rose Bowl Advisory Committee since 2010.

Throughout his career, Taurisani has coordinated 10 bowl trips, including Arkansas' trips to the 2014 Texas Bowl, 2016 Liberty Bowl and 2016 Belk Bowl as well as three consecutive Rose Bowls at Wisconsin. He also organized trips to the Outback Bowl, Capital One Bowl and two Champs Sports Bowls.

Prior to Arkansas, Taurisani spent seven seasons working in football operations at Wisconsin, including the last three as the Badgers' director of football operations. He also served as football operations coordinator for two seasons after being a football operations assistant in 2006 and 2007.

Taurisani spent the summer of 2005 as a training camp assistant with the Seattle Seahawks. In that role, he helped with setup and operational duties, transportation and scheduling.

A native of Utica, New York, Taurisani graduated from SUNY Fredonia with a bachelor's degree in sociology/sports in 2003. He was a captain on the baseball team and was a first-team all-conference performer. He earned a master's degree in sport administration from Louisville in December 2005.

Taurisani will marry his fiancé Tara Rackleff in spring of 2018.

E.K. FRANKS
Director of Recruiting

E.K. Franks is in his fourth season as director of recruiting.

Since 2015, Arkansas has averaged a recruiting ranking of No. 24 nationally and hauled in a total of 27 four-star prospects, including 12 ranked in the ESPN 300 and four ranked in the ESPN JC 50. The program's last three signing classes have featured 21 players from the state of Arkansas, 10 from Louisiana, 10 from Texas and nine from Florida.

Most recently, the Razorbacks signed the No. 1 wide receiver and No. 1 tight end in junior college and also picked up three ESPN 300 prospects, including the No. 9 pocket passer, No. 11 cornerback and No. 12 safety for 2017. Additionally, five of the program's signees from Arkansas ranked in the top 10 in the state.

The 2016 class, which included four in-state signees and was highlighted by the No. 11 overall player, checked in at No. 24 in the ESPN team rankings. The Razorbacks' 20-person class also featured four prospects from Texas, including the nation's No. 6 running back by ESPN, and two from Florida.

In Franks' first year in 2015, the signing class was one of the best in program history, ranking No. 22 by ESPN. The class included 10 players from Arkansas – the most since 2008. The Razorbacks were also very successful in Florida, signing five prospects. It was the second-most Floridians in one class for Arkansas since joining the SEC in 1992. Overall, the 2015 class included 11 four-star signees.

Franks came to Fayetteville with 10 years of collegiate experience, most recently serving as associate head coach and running backs coach at Southeastern Louisiana. He has coached or trained multiple professional athletes, including Wes Welker, Terence Newman and Darren Sproles, and also has extensive recruiting ties to Texas, Florida, Louisiana, Oklahoma, Kansas and Mississippi. He worked with head coach Bret Bielema during stints at Wisconsin and Kansas State.

Franks has a keen eye for talent and a diverse background. He has experience as an assistant coach, strength coach, academic counselor and director of minority relations. In addition, he is active in youth programs and community service outreach, serving on the board of the Kansas-based non-profit S.A.F.E., Success Achieved in Future Environments, which helps mentor youth through athletics.

At Southeastern Louisiana, he tutored Xavier Roberson to multiple All-America honors as a sophomore running back and kick returner. In 2012, Roberson and Rasheed Harrell teamed to make up one of the top freshmen running back duos in the country under Franks' leadership. Before Southeastern Louisiana, Franks spent two seasons as defensive line coach and head strength coach at Delta State. There, he coached a pair of first-team All-Gulf South Conference selections in 2011.

Franks was a defensive graduate assistant at Wisconsin for two seasons while Coach Bielema was the Badgers' defensive coordinator. Prior to Wisconsin, Franks coached the defensive line at Texas State for the 2003 season and was an academic counselor and director of minority relations at Kansas State from 2001-03.

His first collegiate coaching experience came at Kansas State, where he was a strength and conditioning coach for the football team during the 2000 season and 2001 offseason. His first coaching position was at Heritage High School in Oklahoma City, where he tutored defensive backs and was a strength coach for the school from 1996-2000.

The Kansas native earned his bachelor's degree in 2000 and a master's degree in adult education from Kansas State in 2002.

BOBBY ALLEN
Director of High School and NFL Relations

Bobby Allen is in his 20th year on the staff at Arkansas and fifth as director of high school and NFL relations.

Allen served two separate stints as defensive coordinator for the Razorbacks in 1998 and 2000. He has also coached the defensive line, linebackers, cornerbacks and free safeties. In 1998, Allen directed a Razorback defensive unit that ranked sixth nationally in rushing defense, 10th in turnover margin and 13th in scoring defense. In 2000, Allen helped guide a Razorback defense that allowed just 292.1 yards per game to lead the SEC and rank 12th nationally in total defense.

During the 2011 season, he oversaw a defensive tackles group that contributed 132 tackles, led by Byran Jones' 47. The position group also added 9.5 tackles for loss and 11 quarterback hurries. Jones was named to the SEC All-Freshman Team. The defense ranked second in the SEC in sacks with an average of 2.85 per game that tied for eighth nationally.

Under Allen's guidance, the Razorback secondary ranked among the best units in the nation in defending the pass in 2007. Arkansas led the SEC and was second in the nation in pass efficiency defense with a rating of 97.8 and ranked second in the SEC with 20 interceptions, including 11 by Allen's cornerback unit. In addition, Michael Grant and Jerell Norton ranked in the top four of the conference's passes defended category.

Allen began his coaching career at Colorado, where he served as a graduate assistant during the 1983 and 1984 seasons. After helping Minnesota to an Independence Bowl berth as a defensive secondary graduate assistant in 1985, Allen landed his first full-time position at Drake where he was the defensive coordinator from 1986-88.

Allen was a standout prep quarterback at Seneca Valley High School in Gaithersburg, Maryland, and earned the Washington, D.C., area Player of the Year award as a senior. He also excelled in baseball and basketball. Allen went on to earn three varsity letters while playing three positions — kicker, quarterback and outside linebacker — at Virginia Tech. He earned his bachelor's degree in marketing from Virginia Tech in 1983.

Allen is married to the former Marcela Garcia. The couple has one daughter, Daniela, and three sons, Christian, Brandon and Austin. Brandon finished his collegiate career as Arkansas' all-time leader with 64 touchdown passes in 2015 while starting his final 34 games as a Razorback and was taken by the Jacksonville Jaguars in the sixth round of the 2016 NFL Draft. Austin will enter his senior season in 2017 after leading the SEC with 3,430 passing yards and throwing 25 touchdown passes in 2016.

MATTHEW ENGELBERT
Director of Video

Matthew Engelbert, who has 29 years of collegiate experience, is in his fifth season as Arkansas' director of video.

Engelbert oversees the video department responsible for ensuring the Razorback coaches and student-athletes are able to utilize video to study themselves and opponents. He is also responsible for making video of recruits available to the coaching staff.

Engelbert has been instrumental in bringing to Fayetteville college football's first virtual reality technology that utilizes real practice footage. Arkansas was one of just a handful of schools to adopt the system from STRIVR Labs, Inc., prior to the 2015 season. Engelbert has trained his staff, coaches and student-athletes to use the technology most effectively so the Razorbacks earn a competitive advantage on the field.

The first 24 years of Engelbert's career were spent at Iowa, where he earned conference and national recognition for leading the Hawkeyes' video department to a premier level. He was named Big Ten Conference Video Coordinator of the Year three times, most recently in 2010-11, when he also was recognized as the National Video Coordinator of the Year.

Engelbert oversaw many technological upgrades during his time at Iowa. In 2011, he headed a Big Ten committee to develop an improved standard of acquiring game video. The Hawkeyes were one of the first college football programs in the country to shoot in high definition beginning with the 2011 season. He also had Iowa ahead of the curve in 1999 when it was the first program in the nation to use Beta SX and in 2004 when the Hawkeyes adopted Smart Acquisition Technology that allowed for shooting video directly to portable drives and eliminated most tapes. In addition, he also created the Iowa Football Fan Fest.

In his 24 seasons at Iowa, the Hawkeyes claimed three Big Ten championships, won 166 games and advanced to 16 bowl games, including two Orange Bowls and one Rose Bowl. During that time, Iowa also produced 36 All-Americans, nine consensus first-team All-Americans and 77 NFL Draft picks.

Engelbert earned his bachelor's degree in sports management from Iowa in 1993. He and his wife Dana, have two sons, Colin and Andrew.

LUCAS STORTZUM
Assistant Director of Football Operations

Lucas Stortzum is in his first year as the assistant director of football operations.

His duties include advance team travel, coordinating and selecting training table meals, coordinating housing for current and incoming student-athletes, organizing community service appearances with the players.

Prior to Arkansas, Stortzum spent three years on the Eastern Illinois football staff as the director of football operations. He oversaw the day-to-day organizational and operational aspects of the program, including budgets, team travel, on-campus recruiting efforts and serving as the NFL pro scout liaison.

He previously assisted the EIU football team as a graduate assistant for athletic operations for three years.

Stortzum earned his undergraduate degree from EIU in 2010 and later earned a master's degree from EIU in 2012.

BREY COOK
Graduate Assistant for Offense

Brey Cook is in his second season as a graduate assistant for offense at his alma mater. He lettered for the Razorbacks from 2011-14.

Cook assisted with an offensive line in 2016, including Pro Football Focus All-America first team choice Frank Ragnow, that helped pave the way for running back Rawleigh Williams III to capture the SEC regular-season rushing title with 1,326 yards and provided time for quarterback Austin Allen to throw for an SEC-best 3,430 yards. The Razorbacks manufactured 428.4 yards of total offense per game, highlighted by five games with both 200 yards rushing and passing.

Cook started 30 of 48 career games played on the offensive line, including his final 25. As a senior, he participated in more than 850 snaps, tallied more than 40 knockdowns and blocked for running backs Alex Collins and Jonathan Williams, who were the only FBS teammates to each rush for 1,000-plus yards in the 2014 season. The Razorback offensive line also led the SEC in fewest sacks allowed with 14.

During his junior campaign, Cook played a pivotal role on an offensive line that helped Collins become the 10th true freshman in SEC history to rush for 1,000 yards. The offensive line also broke the single-season school record by only allowing 8.0 sacks. Arkansas led the SEC and tied for second in the NCAA with an average of 0.67 sacks allowed per game.

Cook, a native of Springdale, Arkansas, earned his bachelor's degree in communication from Arkansas in 2014. He was named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll for his work in the classroom in the fall of 2011 and 2013.

TAYLOR REED
Graduate Assistant for Offense

Taylor Reed is in his second season at Arkansas as a graduate assistant for offense, working primarily with quarterbacks.

In his first season with the Razorbacks, Reed helped tutor Austin Allen, the SEC's top passer in 2016 who threw for 3,430 yards, including a league-best 2,291 in SEC play, and totaled 25 touchdown passes behind nine multi-touchdown games. Allen completed 61.1 percent of his passes, boasted a 146.04 passer rating with a 200-plus passer rating in three outings, and passed for 300 or more yards four times.

Reed joined the Razorbacks after lettering at Central Arkansas at quarterback from 2013-15. During his career with the Bears, he completed 189 of 277 passes for 1,798 yards and 14 touchdowns in 22 games.

Reed began his college career in 2011 at the University of Memphis, where he started 9 of 11 games, threw for 1,690 yards and 10 touchdowns. Following that season, he transferred to the University of Arkansas. Reed sat out the 2012 season due to NCAA transfer rules and went on to join Central Arkansas in August 2013.

A native of El Dorado, Arkansas, Reed graduated from Central Arkansas with a bachelor's degree in business administration.

DARIUS EUBANKS
Graduate Assistant for Defense

Darius Eubanks is in his first season at Arkansas as a graduate assistant for defense. He joined the Razorbacks after seven years of playing at the collegiate and NFL levels.

A four-year starter at linebacker and defensive back at Georgia Southern from 2009-13, Eubanks started 50 of 52 game played for the Eagles. He totaled 260 tackles, including 12.5 for loss, recorded four interceptions and broke up 18 passes during his career.

Eubanks ranked in the top five on the team in total tackles every season with a career-best 77 as a senior in 2013 en route to Southern Conference All-Conference first team honors from the league head coaches.

Following his collegiate career, Eubanks spent four seasons in the NFL playing for the Minnesota Vikings, Cleveland Browns, Dallas Cowboys and Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

A native of Thomson, Georgia, Eubanks earned his bachelor's in sport management in 2013.

MARK SHERIDAN
Graduate Assistant for Defense

Mark Sheridan is in his second season as a graduate assistant for defense.

Sheridan works primarily with the secondary, a unit that forced 10 interceptions and returned four for touchdowns in 2016. The four interceptions returned for scores were the program's most in one season since at least 1985 and tied for fourth-most in the nation and second-most in the SEC. Three different Arkansas defensive backs recorded two interceptions apiece, including cornerback Ryan Pulley, who added 13 pass breakups to rank second in the SEC and tie for 12th nationally.

Before arriving in Fayetteville, Sheridan spent the 2015 season as a graduate assistant for defense at Purdue, where he worked primarily with the secondary.

Sheridan joined the Boilermakers' staff after serving as cornerbacks coach at his alma mater Albion College during the 2014 season. He was a four-year letterwinner at safety for the Britons from 2010-13 and elected team captain by his teammates as a senior in 2013. Sheridan also helped Albion to MIAA conference championships in both 2011 and 2013.

A native of Ann Arbor, Michigan, Sheridan earned his bachelor's degree in exercise science from Albion in 2013.

TANNER BURNS
Quality Control for Special Teams

Tanner Burns is in his fourth season as a quality control coach for special teams.

Burns coached punter Toby Baker, a Ray Guy Award nominee in 2015 and 2016 and a Burlsworth Trophy semifinalist in 2016, who averaged 43.0 yards per punt across 27 games for the Razorbacks. Baker boomed 27 punts of at least 50 yards, including a career-high of 60 yards, while 45 of his attempts landed inside the 20-yard line.

The Razorbacks also led the SEC in net punting average at 41.8 yards in 2016.

In 2014, Burns was instrumental in helping the Razorbacks' special teams improve in several areas. Arkansas finished fifth nationally in kickoff return average (25.71 yards per return) and led the SEC in punt return coverage (3.06 yards allowed per return).

Burns worked with punter Sam Irwin-Hill, who earned SEC Special Teams Player of the Week honors for the Nov. 22 win against Ole Miss. In that game, Irwin-Hill punted six times for 243 yards (40.5 avg.) and landed three inside the 20. Irwin-Hill dropped 18 of his 26 punts (69.2 percent) inside the 20 during the final five games of the season.

Burns spent the 2013 season as a coaching intern with the Oakland Raiders. He was an integral part of the Raiders' special teams, assisting with quality control, scouting reports and game plans. As a team, Oakland ranked second in the AFC and tied for third in the NFL with an average of 47.8 yards per punt.

Burns wrapped up his collegiate playing career at Ole Miss, where he played free safety and contributed on special teams and was elected team captain. He began his collegiate career at San Jose State and was an honorable mention All-WAC selection as a sophomore in 2009 after starting all 12 games and leading the team with 96 tackles in addition to recording two interceptions, one pass breakup, four forced fumbles and one fumble recovery.

The San Jose, California, native graduated from the University of Mississippi with a bachelor's degree in general studies while minoring in history, sociology and parks and rec management.

MIKE GIULIANI
Quality Control for Defense

Mike Giuliani is in his first season a quality control coach for defense.

Giuliani served as a defensive assistant at the NFL level for six seasons prior to Arkansas, most recently with the Buffalo Bills during the 2015 and 2016 seasons.

Giuliani's job duties with the Bills included coordination of the offensive scout team, offensive opponent breakdown, scouting reports, creation of game day call sheets and creation of the playbook, while assisting with linebackers.

Prior to Buffalo, he spent two the 2013 and 2014 seasons as a defensive assistant with the New York Jets, where he worked with defensive backs, after serving as a season video assistant with the organization in 2011 and 2012.

Giuliani began his coaching career as a defensive student assistant at his alma mater SUNY Cortland from 2009-13. He earned his bachelor's degree in psychology at SUNY Cortland in 2011.

JOHN ROBERTS
Quality Control for Offense

John Roberts is in his third season as a quality control coach for offense.

Roberts helped coach a wide receiver group that totaled more than 4,000 yards and 40 touchdown receptions over the 2015 and 2016 seasons, including Drew Morgan who produced the third- and fourth-best receiving seasons in school history in 2015 and 2016. Morgan also led the SEC with 10 touchdown catches during the 2015 regular season.

The Razorbacks' 2016 receiving corps also was highlighted by Jared Cornelius who put together three straight 100-yard receiving performances to match a 20-year old school record, and Keon Hatcher who led the team with 743 yards and eight touchdown catches.

Prior to Arkansas, Roberts served as a quality control coach and graduate assistant at Central Michigan from 2010-14.

In 2014, Roberts assisted a Central Michigan offense that efficiently controlled the game. The Chippewas offense ranked third in the MAC and 18th nationally in pass efficiency (149.55) and led the MAC in time of possession (33:24). Central Michigan won seven games and advanced to its second bowl game in three years — the 2014 Bahamas Bowl.

Roberts served as an offensive graduate assistant for Central Michigan during the 2012 season. Wide receiver Cody Wilson finished his career with 42 consecutive games with a reception and running back Zurlon Tipton rushed for 1,492 yards, ranking him fourth in the school's record book. The Chippewas won the Little Caesars Bowl, the third bowl victory in program history.

Roberts was a four-year letterwinner at wide receiver at Alma College where he never had a losing season during his career.

The Mt. Pleasant, Michigan, native graduated from Alma College with a bachelor's degree in business administration in 2010. He earned his master's degree in sport administration from Central Michigan in 2013.

NEXT CHAPTER

Written by Rawleigh Williams III

My dad always told me when I was little ... "Don't work to just be the guy in the jersey on Sundays. Work to be the guy in the nice suit that's in the suite of the stadium making all the decisions."

I had not thought about that message much until Sunday, Oct. 25, 2015. The day after my neck injury during my freshman season.

I never thought twice about playing again following my freshman year. The University of Arkansas medical staff and others I spoke to provided me all the information I needed to be fully confident in my decision to return to the field. I gained a lot from playing again during my sophomore season. Things that no one can ever take away from me. I led the SEC regular season in rushing in my first season as a starter. I threw a touchdown pass (thanks Coach Enos). I grew with my teammates. I stayed healthy. I proved to myself that I could do it at the highest level in the SEC.

Spring ball can be a grind. The 15 practices challenge you mentally and physically, but the opportunity to get better each day is something I've learned to never take for granted. This spring ball was extra special to me. I was getting to share the final weekend with my mom, dad, brother and sister.

For the 15th time this spring I suited up. I prayed in my locker and took the field by double-taping my chest twice before pointing to the sky.

An outside zone run to the left side. I've run that play literally hundreds of times in my college career. Maybe more.

This outside zone run to the left would be my last.

Not again. I remembered the feeling. It didn't last as long so I wasn't as nervous, but I knew something was wrong. I knew that it was similar enough to the last time.

Everyone got to me quickly. When they tested my hand strength I could squeeze, but it was really weak and I could barely feel it. I was trying to calm everyone else down. I remember thinking and then saying "Everything is coming back to me. I can feel my body. Let me get up please."

My family is the most important thing in my life. The first thing I thought when it all happened was the reaction of my mom, dad, sister and brother. I didn't want them to go through this all over again. I just wanted to stand up to calm them down and show them that I was ok.

I've seen the replay. I saw a normal hit. That scared me. It shows me it doesn't take a big hit at this point. Any little thing can trigger it. I also saw the reaction of my mom and my sister. That broke my heart. I can't do this anymore. I want to be able to walk.

I'm moving onto the next chapter of my life. It's tough to not be able to play football anymore because I've been playing since I was four years old. It wasn't something I wanted to do or planned on having to do so early. I've prayed, listened to my doctors, my parents and my gut.

It still doesn't seem real yet, but I really don't have a choice. I've dodged the bullet twice. I realize that at the end of the day I want to live a normal life and be around my family.

The most fun I've ever had in my life has been being part of this team the last two years. Playing with my brothers, learning from coaches, the workouts, the preparation, the grind, the games ... we sacrificed a lot. Now that I can't play anymore I wish I could sacrifice more.

Coach B has been someone I've looked up to since the day I met him. He's always been there for me. I'm grateful to him for the opportunity to play football at the University of Arkansas and in front of the best fans in college football. I'm grateful for the opportunities I'm going to earn during the rest of my time here. I can't wait to work under him and learn. I want to be a General Manager one day and he's already helped me look into career paths to achieve my goals.

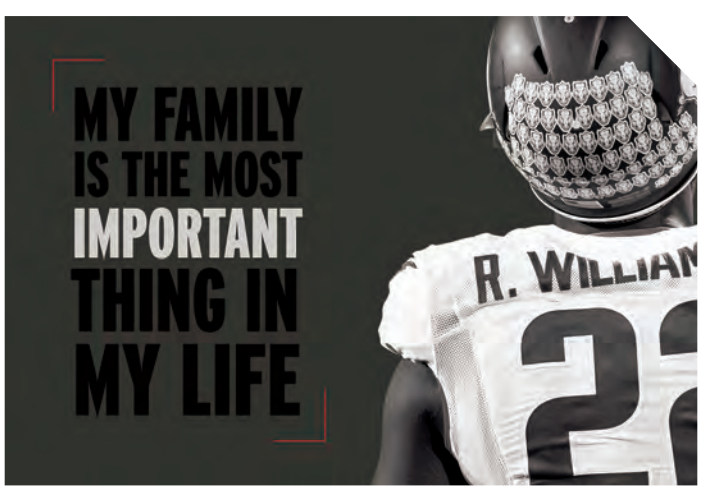

Thank you to the thousands of people who have reached out to me. I appreciate it more than I can ever explain. It's inspiring to know people care about you not only because of your ability, but because of the person you are and what you stand for. I've used my gifts to play football, but my gifts aren't just playing football. I can't wait to give more.

"Don't work to just be the guy in the jersey on Sundays. Work to be the guy in the nice suit that's in the suite of the stadium making all the decisions"... That is now my goal. To be the guy in the nice suit in the suite. To do whatever I have to do to gain more knowledge about the game in all ways. Just like I did when I was a player.

I am very grateful. It is sad but I truly believe God has a plan for my life. I believe I'm going to be blessed more than I could ever imagine. Even though my plan isn't going to happen, I know that his plan is better than my plan.

God Bless.

2016 REVIEW

AUSTIN ALLEN became the first quarterback in school history and one of just four in the SEC since 2000 to throw multiple touchdown passes in each of the first seven games of a season, joining Kenny Hill (Texas A&M, 2014), Andre Woodson (Kentucky, 2007) and Rex Grossman (Florida, 2001).

ALLEN DELIVERED AS QB1

In his first season as the Razorbacks' top signal-caller, QB AUSTIN ALLEN immediately made his mark by leading the SEC with 3,430 passing yards, including a league-best 2,291 in conference play. He finished with 25 touchdown passes, which ranked second in the conference, completed 61.1 percent of his passes (245 of 401) and boasted a 146.04 passer rating.

His 3,430 passing yards and 25 touchdown passes each ranked fifth in single-season school history. Of his 25 touchdown passes, 19 came inside the red zone, which led the SEC and tied for 10th in the FBS. He also tied for the FBS lead with 15 touchdown passes against ranked opponents.

The Fayetteville product threw for 200-plus yards in 11 games, including four 300-plus yard performances in SEC play.

RW3 TOPS 1,000–YARDS RUSHING

RB RAWLEIGH WILLIAMS III became the 13th player in Arkansas history to eclipse 1,000 yards rushing in a season. Williams captured the SEC regular-season rushing title with 1,326 yards and finished the year with 1,360.

Arkansas has had a 1,000-yard rusher in four straight seasons by three different players. Williams also became the seventh different running back to run for 1,000 yards in HC BRET BIELEMA'S 11-year head coaching career. Bielema has had a 1,000-yard rusher in each of his 11 seasons as a head coach.

In addition, Williams became the sixth different running back to run for 200 yards in a single-game under Bielema in his 11 seasons as a head coach. Bielema is 10-0 all-time when he has a player run for 200 or more yards.

DOUBLE TROUBLE

Arkansas has been one of the most balanced offenses in the nation over the last two seasons under OC DAN ENOS. In fact, Arkansas and Boise State were the only two FBS teams to have a 3,000-yard passer and 1,300-yard rusher in each of the last two seasons. Even more impressive, Arkansas was the only school that accomplished the feat with two different quarterbacks and two different running backs.

The combo of a 3,000-yard passer and 1,300-yard rusher has been accomplished three times in Arkansas' program history (2010, 15, 16) with two coming under Enos the last two years.

Arkansas was one of 14 FBS programs with a 3,000-yard passer and 1,300-yard rusher in 2016 and one of just nine FBS programs with a different 3,000-yard passer in 2015 and 2016.

QB BRANDON ALLEN (2015) and QB AUSTIN ALLEN (2016) each passed for 3,000 yards in the last two seasons. The only other time two different Arkansas quarterbacks threw for 3,000 yards in consecutive seasons came in 2010 (RYAN MALLETT) and 2011 (TYLER WILSON).

Arkansas was one of just four FBS programs with a different 1,300-yard rusher in 2015 and 2016. It was just the second time Arkansas had a 1,300-yard rusher in back-to-back seasons and the first time two different players accounted for 1,300 yards rushing in consecutive seasons. RB DARREN MCFADDEN rushed for over 1,300 yards in 2006 and 2007.

RW3'S CAREER NIGHT

RB RAWLEIGH WILLIAMS III had a career performance at Mississippi State on Nov. 19, rushing for 205 yards and four TDs on 16 carries and passing for a TD. He became the fourth player in Arkansas history to run for over 200 yards in an SEC game.

Williams was also the first non-QB in college football in 2016 to rush for four TDs and pass for a TD in a game and one of two FBS running backs to run for four TDs and pass for another since 2000. The other was former Wisconsin RB James White (2012 vs. Nebraska in B1G Championship Game), who also played for HC BRET BIELEMA at the time.

Williams set career-highs for rushing yards and TDs in the first half against Mississippi State with 191 yards and four touchdowns on just eight carries. He had a hand in five of Arkansas' first six TDs in the game with four coming on the ground and the fifth coming on a 1-yard TD pass on 4th-and-goal in the third quarter. He eclipsed 100-yards rushing in his first four attempts (122), marking the first time that an Arkansas running back has rushed for more than 100 yards in the first quarter since RB KNILE DAVIS on Nov. 20, 2010.

IN GOOD COMPANY

RB RAWLEIGH WILLIAMS III was one of just two players in the SEC to run for 200 yards and four TDs in a game in 2016. In fact, he became one of only seven players in the conference to accomplish that feat since 2000.

Williams also joined RB JAMES ROUSE as the only two players in Arkansas history to rush for 200 yards and four TDs in a game and became the first to do so in an SEC game. Rouse tallied 219 yards rushing and four TDs on 19 carries on Nov. 28, 1987 against New Mexico.

Senior DAN SKIPPER finished his career with 47 consecutive starts and became just the sixth offensive lineman in program history to earn All-SEC status in two different seasons.

RAGNOW NAMED COLLEGE FOOTBALL'S BEST OFFENSIVE LINEMAN AND BEST RUN BLOCKER

OL FRANK RAGNOW was named the nation's best offensive lineman, best run blocker and a first-team All-American by Pro Football Focus (PFF) for the 2016 season. He helped pave the way for the Razorbacks to manufacture 428.4 yards of total offense per game, highlighted by five games with both 200 yards rushing and passing.

Ragnow graded out as the top center in the nation by PFF twice in 2016 after his performances during wins over then-No. 11 Florida and at Mississippi State. He graded out as a top three center in five of 12 regular-season games and earned an 80 percent grade or higher from PFF seven times. According to PFF, Ragnow didn't allow a sack for the second straight season and decreased his total number of pressures allowed from 19 in 2015 to just 12.

Ragnow also was named SEC Offensive Lineman of the Week on Sept. 18, 2016, for his efforts in his start at right guard against Texas State. He graded out at a career-best 92 percent and helped Arkansas rush for 226 yards and three scores in the 42-3 win. The Victoria, Minnesota, product has made 26 straight starts heading into his senior campaign with 14 starts at right guard and 12 at center.

ZERO TO 100

Prior to 2016, WR JARED CORNELIUS had never totaled 100 or more yards receiving in a single game. After logging 100-plus yards through the air in Weeks 4, 5 and 6, Cornelius matched a 20-year-old school record of three straight 100-yard receiving games. Cornelius totaled a career-high 146 yards on five receptions against No. 1 Alabama in Week 6 to join former Razorbacks WR ANTHONY LUCAS (1996) and WR MIKE REPPOND (1971) as the only three players in school history to accomplish that feat. His three games over the century mark through the air tied for fourth in the SEC.

SKIPPER ADDED ALL-AMERICA TO LIST OF HONORS

THE ULTIMATE GOAL

Last fall, Razorbacks who graduated from the university and earned a degree but still competed for their respective teams in their final year of NCAA eligibility were honored with a special patch on their jersey that brings to light their academic achievement on a national stage. An initiative championed by Vice Chancellor and Director of Athletics Jeff Long, the new patch features the traditional red and white SEC logo with a "stole" wrapping underneath it emblazoned with the all-important word, "Graduate."

A total of 21 Razorbacks donned the patch during the 2016 Belk Bowl:

RYAN PULLEY emerged as one of the SEC's top cornerbacks in 2016 as he racked up 13 pass breakups, which were second-most in the conference and tied for 12th in the FBS. He forced two interceptions, including one returned for a 25-yard TD against Texas State.

SANTOS RAMIREZ, who will serve as a team captain in 2017, returned his second career interception 24 yards for the opening TD in Arkansas' 31-10 win over No. 11 Florida. The Hogs' four interceptions returned for TDs in 2016 were its most since at least 1985.

1964 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

Without question, the proudest moment in the history of Arkansas Razorback football is the 1964 national championship. Head coach Frank Broyles led his 1964 team to an undefeated 10-0 regular season record and a 10-7 Cotton Bowl victory over Nebraska.

The 1964 national championship was historic not so much for who won but for when the title was awarded.

In 1964, seven different entities named a mythical national champion. The two most notable polls to fans at the time — The Associated Press and the United Press International — did not wait until after the bowl games to award their champion. Because of that, Alabama was named the national champ by the AP, UPI and Litkenhous groups. However, the Crimson Tide went on to lose 21-17 to Texas in the Orange Bowl and finish 10-1 on the year.

Arkansas remained the only undefeated team in the country at 11-0 with its victory over Nebraska. Two groups who waited until after the bowl games to name their champion — The Football Writers Association of America and the Helms Athletic Foundation — named Frank Broyles' Razorbacks as national champs. Notre Dame and Michigan also were honored by lesser known polls. Both the AP (1965) and UPI (1974) eventually changed their procedure, choosing to wait until after the bowls to announce their final polls.

RETIRED NUMBERS

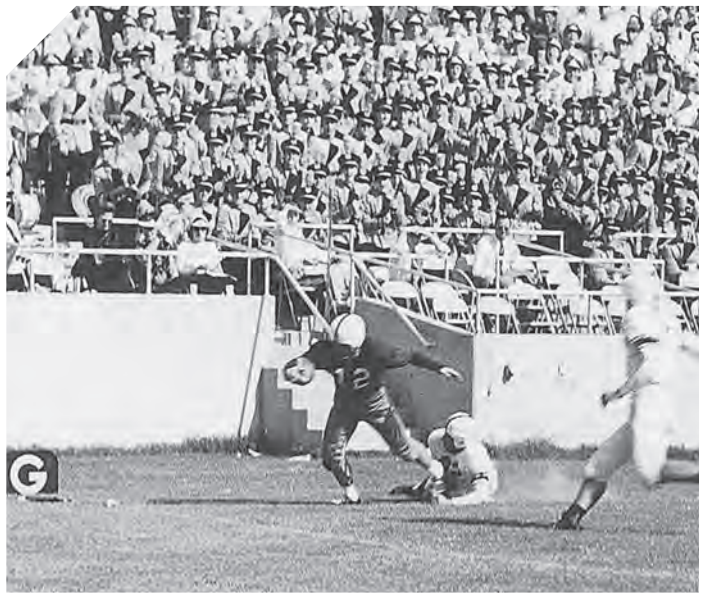

The ultimate honor is to have your jersey number retired, and in the 122 years the Razorbacks have been on the football field, only two players have had the honor bestowed upon them. Clyde Scott (No. 12) and Brandon Burlsworth (No. 77) have worn numbers no future Razorback will ever wear.

NO. 12 CLYDE "SMACKOVER" SCOTT – (1946–49)

Following a glamorous career in the 1940s, the athletic department decided to retire No. 12. Nicknamed "Smackover" for his hometown, Clyde Scott made a name for himself in 1948, winning the silver medal in the hurdles at the Olympic Games in August and then reporting to football practice where he would earn All-America honors during his senior year.

Scott rushed for 1,463 yards during his career for a school record at the time. In 1948 he had an impressive 7.0 yards-per-carry average, gaining 670 yards on 95 attempts. Scott was the first Razorback athlete to win an Olympic medal as most of Arkansas' track success didn't come until 1978 with the arrival of John McDonnell.

When Arkansas was recruiting Steve Little, Coach Frank Broyles asked Scott if Little could wear his retired No. 12. Scott graciously agreed and Little went on to an All-American career.

NO. 77 BRANDON BURLSWORTH – (1994–98)

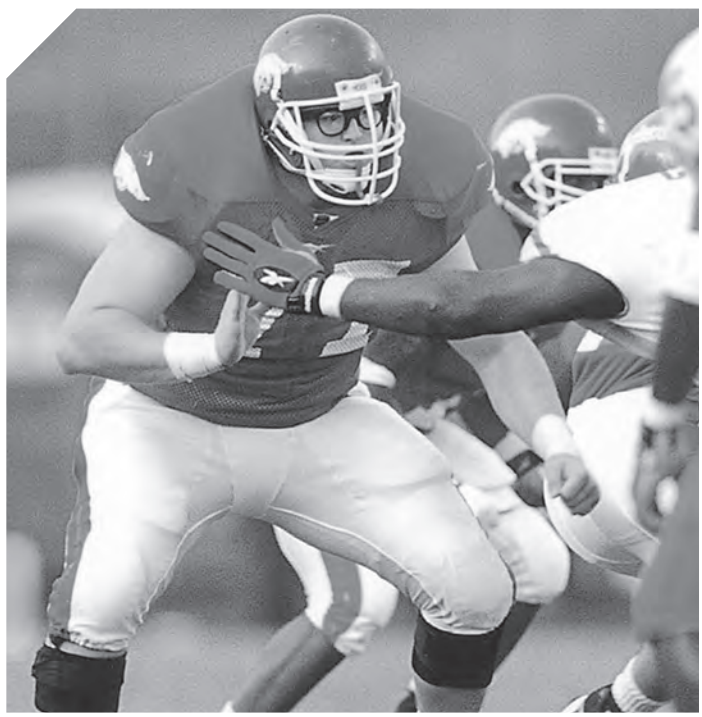

The athletic department did not see fit to retire another football jersey until after the 1998 campaign, when the No. 77 worn by Razorback All-American offensive guard Brandon Burlsworth was retired.

One of the most inspiring stories in Razorback history, Burlsworth joined the Razorbacks in 1994 as a walk-on. Following a redshirt year, he earned a scholarship with his work ethic in the weight room. After serving as a backup guard for the 1995 SEC Western Division champions, he earned a starting position in the spring of '96 and never yielded it. He went on to start 34 consecutive games, concluding with the Florida Citrus Bowl on Jan. 1, 1999.

Burlsworth was an All-SEC offensive guard in 1997. In 1998 he not only earned all-conference honors, but was named a first team All-American by The Football News. He was the leader of an offensive line that helped the Razorback offense score more points than it had since 1970 and produce more yards than it had since the 1989 season.

In the classroom, Burlsworth was equally astounding. He earned his bachelor's degree in marketing management in 1997 and immediately went to work on his master's in business administration. In December 1998, Burlsworth completed his master's requirements to become the first Razorback football player to complete a master's degree before playing in his final game.

Burlsworth was drafted in the third round by the Indianapolis Colts, but unfortunately would die tragically in an automobile accident less than two weeks later. The entire state of Arkansas was stunned and head coach Houston Nutt recommended that Burlsworth's jersey be retired. Athletic director Frank Broyles quickly agreed.

HUGO BEZDEK

5 seasons | 1908-12 | 29-13-1

The first full-time, paid coach in Arkansas football history, Hugo Bezdek guided the Cardinals to a 5-4 campaign in his first season. In 1909 he led UA to what is widely regarded as the program's breakthrough season — a 7-0-0 campaign during which Arkansas outscored its foes 186-18. Upon the team's return from a win over LSU in Memphis, Tenn., that season, Bezdek told students his team had played "like a wild band of razorback hogs." The students liked the nickname and officially adopted it prior to the 1910 season.

E.T. PICKERING

2 seasons | 1913-14 | 11-7

After beginning his tenure 5-0 en route to a 7-2-0 debut season, E.T. Pickering's second and final season at the helm of the UA program is best known for a contest against Ole Miss that is still disputed more than a century later. Arkansas claims a 1-0 forfeit victory due to the Rebels' use of an ineligible player; Ole Miss denies the allegation and claims a 13-7 win on the field. The dispute led to the suspension of the series until 1924.

T.T. McDONNELL

2 seasons | 1915-16 | 8-6-1

The beginning of T.T. McConnell's tenure as head coach at Arkansas coincided with the inaugural season of Southwest Conference football. After a 4-2-1 debut in 1915 and four-consecutive wins to open the 1916 season, McConnell's tenure culminated with consecutive losses to LSU, Texas, Oklahoma and Mississippi State.

NORMAN PAINE

2 seasons | 1917-18 | 8-3-1

Only a loss at Texas in the season finale prevented Norman Paine from an undefeated record in his first season, which began with five consecutive wins. His 1917 win over LSU was Arkansas' only victory against the Tigers in six games from 1915 to 1921. After playing the Sooners to a scoreless tie in 1917, Paine's 1918 team suffered the worst defeat in school history — a 103-0 loss at Oklahoma.

J.B. CRAIG

1 season | 1919 | 3-4

Although J.B. Craig's only season included a lopsided 63-7 loss to Tulsa (then known as Henry Kendall), it concluded with a 7-6 win over Oklahoma in the Razorbacks' most recent home meeting with the Sooners. The win avenged the 103-0 loss in Norman, Okla., the year before.

G.W. McLAREN
2 seasons | 1920-21 | 8-5-3

G.W. McLaren's Razorback teams yielded just 19 points in the six Southwest Conference games during his two-year tenure. His inaugural Arkansas team in 1920 shutout SWC foes SMU, Phillips and Rice en route to a 2-0-1 league mark. Because the SWC did not count ties toward winning percentage until 1925, the 1920 team is credited with a 1.000 league winning percentage but was not credited with a share of the league title won by Texas with a 5-0 conference mark.

FRANCIS SCHMIDT
7 seasons | 1922-28 | 42-20-3

Led by George Cole, Glen Rose and Wear Schoonover, Francis Schmidt's 1927 Razorback team won a then-school-record eight games. After guiding the Hogs to a 7-2 campaign in 1928, Schmidt left UA to take over the TCU program.

FRED THOMSEN
13 seasons | 1929-41 | 56-61-10

Still the second-longest tenured head coach in Arkansas football history, Fred Thomsen was an offensive innovator who made the passing game an integral part of the UA attack. He led the Hogs to what would have been their first Southwest Conference title in 1933 only to vacate the championship for using an ineligible player. All-SWC performances by Jack Robbins and Jim Benton helped the Hogs to the SWC crown in 1936 and a tie for 18th in the final Associated Press poll in its first year of existence.

GEORGE COLE
1 season | 1942 | 3-7

The first of just two Arkansas graduates to serve as head football coach at his alma mater, George Cole went on to serve as athletic director at the school from 1970 to 1972. An All-Southwest Conference quarterback and a shortstop on the UA baseball team during his collegiate career, Cole began his administrative career as a line coach for the Razorbacks in 1936 and served as assistant athletic director under John Barnhill. Arkansas' baseball facility, Baum Stadium at George Cole Field, bears his name.

JOHN BARNHILL

Widely credited with uniting the state of Arkansas behind the Razorback program, John Barnhill led UA to a share of the Southwest Conference title and its first Cotton Bowl berth in the first of his four seasons before retiring from coaching to focus on his duties as athletic director. His coaching tenure included the debut of War Memorial Stadium in Little Rock, Ark., the Hogs' second and third bowl appearances and the recruitment of 1948 All-American and Olympic silver medal winner Clyde Scott.

OTIS DOUGLAS

3 seasons | 1950-52 | 9-21

Despite personnel that included future NFL stars Fred Williams, Dave "Hawg" Hanner, Pat Summerall, Lamar McHan, Floyd Sagely and Lewis Carpenter, the Razorbacks managed just nine wins during Douglas' three-year tenure. The highlight of his stay was a 16-14 win over Texas in 1951 — the Razorbacks' first win over the Longhorns in Fayetteville.

BOWDEN WYATT

2 seasons | 1953-54 | 11-10

After an inauspicious 3-7-0 mark in his initial campaign, Bowden Wyatt led the "25 Little Pigs" to Arkansas' second Southwest Conference title in 1954. That season also saw the Hogs earn their first win at Texas in 17 years, followed the next week by a 6-0 upset of Ole Miss on a 66-yard touchdown pass from Bob Benson to Preston Carpenter known to Razorback fans as the "Powder River Play." Wyatt left after the 1954 season to coach Tennessee, his alma mater.

FRANK BROYLES

19 seasons | 1958-76 | 144-58-5

Frank Broyles' arrival at Arkansas prior to the 1958 season marked the beginning of a relationship between Broyles and the institution. He served as athletic director from 1973-2007. With 144 wins in 19 seasons, Broyles ranks as the winningest and longest-tenured head football coach in UA history. His 1964 team went 11-0 to earn the school's only national championship and No. 1 final ranking by the Football Writers Association of America. He led the Razorbacks to 10 bowl appearances, including nine New Year's Day Bowls.

HOUSTON NUTT
10 seasons | 1998-2007 | 75-48

Houston Nutt was the third Arkansas head coach to take the Razorbacks to a bowl game in each of his first six seasons. He led the Hogs to three SEC Western Division crowns, eight bowl games, two bowl victories, three final national rankings and four nine-win seasons. Nutt's 8-0 start in 1998 marked the best debut ever for a UA head coach and helped UA reach its first New Year's Day game since 1990. In 2001 and 2006, Nutt was voted SEC Coach of the Year by the Associated Press and league coaches.

BOBBY PETRINO
4 seasons | 2008-11 | 34-17

Bobby Petrino was introduced as the head coach of the Razorbacks on Dec. 11, 2007. In just his third season, he led Arkansas to the first BCS game in school history against Ohio State in the Allstate Sugar Bowl. In his final season, he took the Razorbacks to a school-record-tying 11 wins and the first top-five AP finish since 1977.

JOHN L. SMITH
1 season | 2012 | 4-8

On April 23, 2012, John L. Smith returned to Arkansas as the Razorbacks' head coach for the 2012 season. Smith, who was an assistant at Arkansas from 2009-11, was named a head coach for the sixth time in his career after stops at Idaho, Utah State, Louisville, Michigan State and Weber State.

BRET BIELEMA
4 seasons | 2013-Present | 25-26

On Dec. 4, 2012 the University of Arkansas captivated the world of college football by naming Bret Bielema the 32nd head coach in Razorback history. Bielema, who had spent seven years at Wisconsin, represented the three qualities Arkansas was looking for: a leader of young men who holds student-athletes academically responsible and a coach who has a proven record of winning championships.

FELIX JONES' career 7.66 yards per carry average is a program record and over a yard better than the SEC record set by Bo Jackson, but his 386 career carries are just short of the minimum of 400.

INDIVIDUAL PASSING RECORDS

BRANDON ALLEN broke Arkansas' single-game record with six touchdown passes at Ole Miss (Nov. 7, 2015) and his own record two weeks later with seven touchdown passes against Mississippi State (Nov. 21, 2015) to equal the SEC record.

DONALD W. REYNOLDS RAZORBACK STADIUM

Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium (DWRRS) will serve as the home of Razorback Football for the 80th season during the 2017 campaign. Since opening in 1938, the Razorbacks have played 280 games at the current site, winning more than 66 percent of their contests.

Located on the western side of campus, DWRRS was formerly known as Razorback Stadium before being renamed in 2001 in honor of the late Donald W. Reynolds. The playing field is named in honor of former athletic director and the winningest, longest-tenured head football coach in University of Arkansas history, Frank Broyles.

Upon undergoing many modifications, DWRRS gives the University of Arkansas one of the finest football facilities in the nation. The Home of the Razorbacks will soon undergo another major transformation. In July 2016, the University of Arkansas Board of Trustees approved a $160M stadium renovation and north end zone addition scheduled to be completed prior to the 2018 season.

Prior to the 2001 season, the stadium underwent a dramatic advancement — a $110 million project, which included a $20 million gift from the Donald W. Reynolds Foundation, increased the seating capacity from 51,000 to 72,000.

The renovation included reconstructed concourses with a brick facade that completely enclosed the concrete and steel below the stands. In addition, the concourses were widened, and concession areas and restrooms were replaced.

Known as "Championship Alley," the east concourse displays all 13 conference championships, the 1964 national title and every football letterman. The south end zone concourse, "All-American Alley," is dedicated to the 57 Razorback All-Americans. The west concourse, "Bowl Alley," commemorates each of the program's 42 bowl teams.

Another noticeable addition was the enclosure of the south end zone, which features chair back seating and the addition of approximately 7,300 total seats as well as a food court with vendor space.

Along with an expanded press box, which includes Orville Henry Press Row, 68 luxury suites/skyboxes were added, bringing the total to 134.

The 3,800 square foot Wilson Matthews A Club was added on the east side next to a 6,500-seat upper deck that is complemented by enclosed premium club seating. The stadium's capacity includes 8,950 club seats, inside and out.

One of the first ever expansion projects occurred in 1950 and included the construction of a new press box and 5,200 more seats on the west side. Another 5,200-seat addition to the east side was completed in 1957.

Earlier building efforts in 1965 and 1969 raised capacity to 42,678 — a figure held steady for more than a decade.

Prior to 2001, the last previous expansion occurred before the 1985 season and added additional seats and skyboxes, bringing the facility to 50,000 seats.

Astroturf was added in 1969. The playing surface then returned to natural grass in 1995 prior to its transition to synthetic turf in 2009.

Making its debut on Sept. 24, 1938 as Arkansas defeated Oklahoma A&M, 27-7, the stadium was dedicated later that year on Oct. 8 when the Razorbacks hosted Baylor.

Constructed as a Works Progress Administration project with an original capacity of 13,500, the facility was first enlarged upon the arrival of John Barnhill as athletic director in 1947 when an additional 2,500 seats were added to the north end of the east and west grandstands.

Prior to 1938, the Razorbacks played in a 300-seat stadium built in 1901 on land atop "The Hill," now occupied by Mullins Library and the Fine Arts Center.

For more than five decades, Broyles helped shape intercollegiate athletics as a legendary coach, nationally respected administrator and a tireless goodwill ambassador for his university and state. In July 2014, Broyles stepped away from his day-to-day duties with the Razorback Foundation after a combined 55 years of service with the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics and Razorback Foundation. Broyles continues to serve as Athletics Director Emeritus.

In his 19-year stint as Arkansas' head coach, the Razorbacks posted a record of 144-58-5, captured seven SWC championships, one national championship and earned 10 bowl berths. Broyles was a six-time SWC Coach of the Year and became the mentor to dozens of assistant coaches preparing them for successful head coaching careers in both college and pro football. His impact on the coaching profession is best measured in the development of more than 40 head coaches. Former Broyles' assistant coaches have combined to win five Super Bowls, five national championships, more than 40 conference titles and more than 2,000 games. His legacy is celebrated annually with the presentation of the Broyles Award to the nation's top assistant football coach.

Broyles assumed the role of athletic director in July 1973 and remained in that position long after retiring from coaching in 1976. While universally recognized for his coaching prowess, it was his keen administrative and business skills that allowed Broyles to charter a steady course of success for the Razorbacks. Broyles laid the groundwork for transforming the athletic program into an all sport program that produced 41 national championships, 57 SWC and 48 SEC championships, 22 bowl appearances and a bevy of other team and individual accomplishments under his tenure.

On Nov. 3 2007, Frank Broyles Field, the on-campus football playing field for the Arkansas Razorbacks within Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium, was named for the long-time head football coach and athletic director. The field was dedicated at halftime of the Arkansas-South Carolina game in an on-field ceremony that included Broyles once again leading former Razorback football lettermen through the "A" and a surprise visit from broadcasting legend and Broyles' former ABC Sports broadcasting partner Keith Jackson. The dedication culminated a memorable weekend that also included a reunion of former football lettermen spanning Coach Broyles' 19-year career as the Razorbacks' head football coach.

On Nov. 23, 2013, a bronze statue was dedicated in Broyles honor in front of the Broyles Athletic Center. The statue, sculpted by Dr. Gary Renegar, stands seven and a half feet and weighs more than 700 pounds.

The Razorbacks' home venue in Central Arkansas for 70 years, War Memorial Stadium/AT&T Field is slated to host Arkansas football games until 2018 after an extension was signed in 2013. During that span, the facility will host one University of Arkansas game annually.

Three-year Arkansas letterman and Congressional Medal of Honor Winner Maurice (Footsie) Britt was the featured speaker during dedication ceremonies for War Memorial Stadium on Sept. 18, 1948. On that day, a crowd of 24,950 (a record football attendance in Arkansas at that time) watched the Razorbacks defeat Abilene Christian, 40-6.

During its existence, the facility has expanded from its original capacity of 31,000 to its current figure of 54,120.

A complete lighting system and Astroturf surface were added for the 1970 season with a new artificial surface to follow in 1974. Ten years later, another new layer of artificial turf was installed before a return to natural grass was made in 1994. AstroPlay was installed for the 2002 season. War Memorial Stadium installed a new turf manufactured by Field Turf during the summer of 2010 and the field was named AT&T Field. In addition, a new $7.5 million press box that includes 500 club seats was constructed for the 2010 football season. The War Memorial Stadium Commission, along with the University of Arkansas Athletic Department, has renovated the Razorback Letterman's Club and Recruit Room.

In 1974, the press box was honored as the best in the nation by the Football Writers Association of America, a recognition for the facility and the services provided. The press floor is now named for longtime sportswriter and an authority on Razorback history, Orville Henry.

AT&T STADIUM

In 2008, Arkansas and Texas A&M officials agreed to enter into an agreement with AT&T Stadium, home of the Dallas Cowboys in Arlington, Texas, to renew its long-time storied rivalry under the name "Southwest Classic."

After a 16-year absence, the 2009 season marked the return of the rivalry between the former Southwest Conference foes. This time, the Razorbacks and Aggies clashed in a non-conference showdown where Arkansas claimed a 47-19 victory. The matchup followed suit in 2010 and 2011, both resulting in Razorback victories.

Due to scheduling conflicts associated with the Aggies' move to the SEC in 2012, the schools were forced to alternate home venues for the 2012 and 2013 contests; however, the contest returned to Arlington in 2014 and kicked off the first game of an 11-year agreement.

Arkansas leads the all-time series versus the Aggies 41-29-3.

One of the most expensive sports venues ever built, AT&T Stadium was completed in 2009 and is fourth-largest in capacity in the NFL. Capacity can expand to seat upwards of 85,000 people. The $1.15 billion project was spearheaded by Dallas Cowboys owner and former co-captain of the Arkansas 1964 national championship team, Jerry Jones.

Containing the world's largest column-free interior and the fourth largest high definition video screen, which hangs from 20-yard line to 20-yard line, the facility also serves as a multi-purpose venue for concerts and other college and high school athletic events.

The 80,000 square-foot Fred W. Smith Football Center opened in 2013 and includes a spacious locker room, team meeting rooms, training room, equipment room, a student-athlete lounge and study area, coaches' offices, a recruiting reception area and football displays celebrating the tradition of Razorback Football. In the fall of 2012 as part of the football center project, two new practice fields and a parking deck were completed south of the Walker Family Training Center providing the football team with spectacular new practice venues and university faculty and students with approximately 225 covered parking spaces.

Arkansas is also one of only 13 college football programs and three NFL teams to own a piece of training equipment called STRIVR, a virtual reality training software. The STRIVR equipment allows the student-athletes to be immersed into a first-person 360 degree environment, taking a classroom approach to preparation while simulating real-time experiences on the football field.

BRET BIELEMA

"It is apparent Fred W. Smith and his family are extremely proud of the University of Arkansas and all it represents. They have been long-time fervent advocates of the Razorbacks and the entire state. He is a man of few words and lots of action and his generosity has once again demonstrated a strong devotion to our mission of winning championships. I am a big believer in preparing student-athletes for football and for life and I am pleased to associate Fred W. Smith's name with the facility that will amplify our focus in these areas for countless future Razorbacks."

The Jerry and Gene Jones Family Student-Athlete Success Center helps address the academic, nutritional, personal and professional development of more than 460 student-athletes in an approximately 55,000 square foot facility, creating an integrated academic support program focused on graduation of all student-athletes at the University of Arkansas.

INTERVIEWS

Interviews with our coaches and student-athletes are encouraged, but we require all interview arrangements be made via the Arkansas Communications Office. Coaches and student-athletes are instructed to decline any interviews not pre-arranged by the Communications Office. University of Arkansas football coaches and student-athletes are generally available for in-person interviews during a game week. All student-athlete and assistant coach interview requests must be made at least one day in advance to allow time to facilitate the notification process. Telephone interviews can be arranged, but student-athletes' telephone numbers will not be provided and student-athletes are instructed to politely decline interviews when contacted by telephone. Student housing, the training room, the weight room and locker rooms are off-limits to members of the media.

DAILY PRACTICE

Following select practice sessions, select members of the coaching staff or student-athletes will be available for group interviews with the media. Video and still photographers from accredited media outlets wishing to shoot practices are asked to consult with the Arkansas Communications Office for current guidelines prior to arrival at the practice field.

WEEKLY PRESS CONFERENCE OPPORTUNITIES

Please consult the Arkansas Communications Office for the schedule of weekly press opportunities for Coach Bielema and student-athletes.

GAME CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

All requests for media and/or photo credentials must be online at SportsSystems.com/Arkansas. Requests should be made at least 10 days in advance.

Credentials must be requested and will be granted on a game-by-game basis only. No multi-game or full season credentials will be issued.

Please see media credentialing guidelines online at SportsSystems.com/Arkansas. Space limitations prevent accommodation of weekly media representatives.

Only fully accredited personnel directly involved in the coverage of the game will be admitted. Credentials are non-transferable. The Arkansas Communications Office reserves the right to revoke any credential: (1) used by an individual other than the one for whom it was granted; (2) any individual who refuses to comply with press box and/or photographic area guidelines; (3) any individual who is not an accredited member of the media; (4) any individual under the age of 16.

Credentials will not be mailed. They may be picked up beginning three prior to kickoff at the media will call station at the base of the elevator at both Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium in Fayetteville and War Memorial Stadium in Little Rock. Photo identification is required when picking up credentials.

GAMEDAY PARKING

Limited parking is available in Fayetteville and Little Rock for media members. Those media members needing parking should make the request at least two weeks in advance to allow time for mailing.

LIVE STATS

Live in-game stats will be provided for the media at Arkansas.Statbroadcast.com.

WIRELESS INTERNET

The Arkansas press box does have wireless access. Information on accessing the internet is available in the game day information packets in the press box.

RAZORBACK SPORTS PROPERTIES

The University of Arkansas Athletic Department and IMG are in its 10th year of a powerful partnership that created Razorback Sports Properties. As the multimedia rights-holder, Razorback Sports Properties (RSP) is responsible for the corporate marketing and advertising for all 19 sports.

Along with corporate branding through the Razorbacks, RSP also creates new programming and publications for Razorback fans. They continue to expand the coverage of the Razorback Sports Network. This statewide radio network, consisting of 45+ affiliates, covers all of Arkansas and parts of all six surrounding states.

The official radio and television shows of Razorback Football continue to grow in attendance and viewership. The radio show is held weekly at the Catfish Hole and is aired live on the Razorback Sports Network. The official television show is aired statewide on Sunday nights and regionally throughout the week during football season.

CHUCK BARRETT – PLAY-BY-PLAY

Barrett is entering his 11th season as the play-by-play announcer for the Razorbacks and he's no stranger to Arkansas fans or the Razorback Sports Network broadcast team. This is his 23rd year on the broadcast crew, including spending 14 years as the executive producer. Prior to taking over play-by-play responsibilities in the 2007 season, his duties included hosting the pre-game show, halftime and scoreboard shows, and the football version of the Razorback Report. He has also worked as the play-by-play man for baseball from 1992 to 2014 and added men's basketball play-by-play to his duties prior to the 2010-11 season. Barrett was recognized by the National Sportswriters and Sportscasters Hall of Fame as the 2007, 2008 and 2009 Arkansas Sportscaster of the Year.

QUINN GROVEY – COLOR ANALYST

Grovey will be entering his 20th overall season on the network, including his first as the color analyst. The former Hog quarterback previously served as co-host of the pre-game and post-game shows and the network's sideline reporter. A three-year starter for the Razorbacks, Grovey led Arkansas to Southwest Conference titles in 1988 and 1989, and was named to the program's 1980s All-Century team.

GENO BELL - CO-HOST & SIDELINE

Bell is entering his first season on the broadcast team as a sideline reporter, taking over the role from Grovey. Bell was a four-year letterwinner on the defensive line for the Razorbacks from 1993-95. He totaled 185 tackles, including 28 for loss, 11 sacks, four pass breakups and three fumble recoveries. Following his collegiate career, Bell played in the NFL with the New York Jets and the Cleveland Browns. He returned to Arkansas after his playing career and is a senior director of transportation at the worldwide headquarters of Walmart in Bentonville.

RICK SCHAEFFER – CO-HOST

Schaeffer is in his 24th year with Razorback football. He was the color analyst for 10 seasons and is now a co-host for the pre-game, halftime and post-game shows. Schaeffer worked in the Arkansas Sports Information Department for 24 years, 21 of those years serving as director. Rick is the communications director for the Springdale School District and the co-host of Drive Time Sports on 103.7 The Buzz.

SCOTT INMAN – CO-HOST

Inman is in his 11th year as co-host of the pre-game and post-game shows. It's his 19th overall season with the network, having first served as studio host. Inman currently is the director of business development for GenWealth Financial Advisors and previously was the anchor of the 5 p.m., 6 p.m., and 10 p.m. newscasts for KATV in Little Rock.

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS JEFF LONG

Entering his 10th full year as Vice Chancellor and Director of Athletics, Jeff Long has helped transform the University of Arkansas' Department of Intercollegiate Athletics into one of the most successful and mission driven programs in the country. Long, the 2015 SportsBusiness Journal (SBJ) and SportsBusiness Daily (SBD) Athletic Director of the Year, leads a program that encompasses 19 sports and more than 460 student-athletes.

Long has focused every aspect of the Razorback program on achieving the mission of developing student-athletes to their fullest potential through intercollegiate athletics. In the process, he has also emerged as a nationally respected leader within intercollegiate athletics and an influential voice on issues pertaining to student-athletes and their collegiate experience.

Long served as the inaugural College Football Playoff selection chairman for the 2014 and 2015 seasons and remains a member of the selection committee through 2017. He was recently named to the NCAA Division I Football Oversight Committee and continues to serve as the athletics director representative on the Southeastern Conference's Executive Committee.

Even while representing his institution and the state in some of the most prestigious leadership positions in college sports, Long has guided the Razorback program to unprecedented success. In Long's tenure, Arkansas has captured 34 conference championships and advanced to 139 post-season competitions, including the school's first Bowl Championship Series appearance in football and national titles at the 2013 NCAA Men's Indoor and the 2015 NCAA Women's Indoor Track and Field Championships and the 2016 NCAA Outdoor Track and Field Championships.

In 2016-17, Arkansas finished No. 20 in the Learfield Directors Cup, marking the eighth Top 25 finish in the last 10 years. Arkansas scored points in 16 of its 19 sports, finishing second in the nation among programs with 19 or fewer sports. The Razorbacks added another six SEC crowns to their collection including a conference Triple Crown in women's cross country, indoor and outdoor track and field. Arkansas also advanced to the SEC Tournament Championship games in baseball, men's basketball and soccer.

In the classroom, the Razorbacks continue to set new standards including posting a school record student-athlete grade point average of 3.25. Arkansas led the conference in selections to the SEC Fall Academic Honor Roll, including a league high 39 football student-athletes.

Arkansas once again exceeded the national APR multi-year rate in all 19 sports, including posting its highest program average ever (977.8). The program's Graduation Success Rate was a record 78 percent and 100 current or former Razorback student-athletes added their names to Senior Walk as University of Arkansas graduates.

Student-athlete development has also been a priority. A $10.65 million gift from the family of former Razorback and Dallas Cowboys owner Jerry Jones, the largest gift to athletics in more than two decades, transformed an already nationally recognized program into one that rivals any in the country. The Jerry and Gene Jones Family Student-Athlete Success Center is a 55,000 square foot facility dedicated to the development of more than 460 Razorback student-athletes.

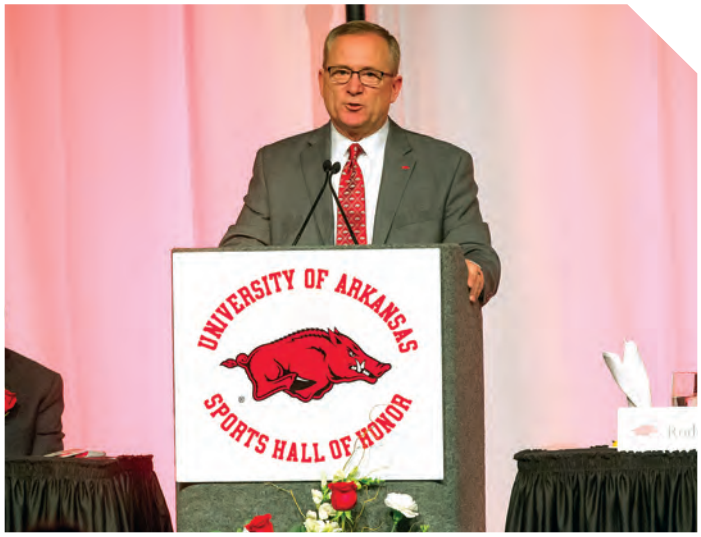

Even before his appointment as the CFP Selection Committee's Chairman, Long's leadership and unwavering commitment to the student-athletes and maintaining integrity within intercollegiate athletics had not gone unnoticed. In 2013, Long was named as an Under Armour Athletics Director of the Year for the Football Bowl Subdivision. In 2012, Long was named a finalist for the SBJ/SBD Athletic Director of the Year. In the spring of 2012, the Donald W. Reynolds Foundation and longtime chairman Fred W. Smith made a combined gift of more than $1.25 million to the program in recognition of Long's leadership of Razorback Athletics.

A member of the Chancellor's Executive Committee, Long is helping to chart the course for the future of higher education at the University of Arkansas while integrating Razorback Athletics into the campus community. Arkansas is one of less than 25 institutions in the nation to have a financially self-sustaining athletics department. Razorback Athletics receives no state funding and does not collect a student fee. In fact, the department routinely gives millions of dollars each year to support other campus academic programs.

In each of the past seven years, Razorback Athletics has transferred funds totaling more than $1 million to support the university's academic mission. For 2017-18, the department's total support of university and student programs and initiatives will include more than $3.5 million in direct funding of academic programs including financial support for Champions Hall, a classroom and laboratory building, serving the entire University of Arkansas student population.

Long was selected to replace legendary athletic director and former Razorback football coach Frank Broyles and even before he officially took the reins on Jan. 1, 2008, Arkansas announced that it would combine its previously independent men's and women's athletic programs. Long adeptly blended the athletic programs into one unified department and established a new administrative structure.

Under Long's leadership, the program has fortified its financial standing ensuring more support for the development of student-athletes. As economic indicators were beginning to point toward challenging economic times, Long signed Arkansas to a decade long deal with IMG College to form Razorback Sports Properties that guaranteed the Razorback program $73 million. Long also negotiated an extensive all sports apparel and footwear agreement with NIKE, Inc. for all 19 Razorback sports programs.

In 2010, Long moved to help meet the growing financial needs of fielding a nationally competitive all sports program. The athletic department launched the "Answer the Call" campaign through the Razorback Foundation which resulted in more than 2,600 new members and helped generate more than $6.5 million in additional support for Razorback student-athletes.

With an eye towards the future, Long commissioned a comprehensive plan to assess the future facility needs of the program. Unveiled in October 2011, the Razorback Athletic Facilities Master Plan provided a vision and the road map for $320 million of facility renovations and additions that will help all 19 Razorback sports remain competitive in the SEC and nationally over the next 30 years.

Projects already completed as part of the plan include the Fred W. Smith Football Center, the Fowler Family Baseball and Track Training Center, extensive renovations of the George Billingsley Tennis Center, John McDonnell Field (outdoor track and field), Razorback Field (soccer) and the Fred W. Smith and Mary B. Smith Golf Training Facility. In the fall of 2015, a Basketball Performance Center and the Jerry and Gene Jones Family Student-Athlete Success Center opened to Razorback student-athletes.

Construction is already underway on the next chapter in the storied history of the Home of the Razorbacks, a $160 million Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium and North End Zone Addition. The project will enhance the game day experience for all Razorback fans with a south end video board, a full 360 degree stadium concourse, new suites and club seats as well as new stadium entrances. The additional video board will be ready for the 2017 season with the completion of the full project prior to the 2018 season. No university funds, state funds or student fees will be required to complete the project.

According to a recent economic impact study, Razorback Athletics will have an estimated economic impact of more than $1 billion in five years. The study estimated Razorback Athletics generates $162.7 million annually to the region's economy. In addition, recent athletic construction has generated another $110.9 million for the region. The Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium Renovation and North End Zone Addition is projected to have an estimated economic impact of $262.4 million.

A veteran administrator with a track record of the highest commitment to the concept of "student-athlete," Long has had more than two decades experience in athletic administration at the Division I level including at the University of Pittsburgh, University of Oklahoma, University of Michigan, Virginia Tech University, Eastern Kentucky University and Rice University. Long also understands the coach's perspective from time spent in coaching staff positions at Duke University, University of Michigan and North Carolina State University.

His experience as an athletic director and administrator in five of the six Bowl Championship Series conferences — the Big 12, Big Ten, Big East, Atlantic Coast and SEC — gives Long a uniquely informed perspective on intercollegiate athletics.

On the forefront of NCAA governance, Long has previously served on the NCAA Management Council, the NCAA's Sports Wagering Task Force, the NCAA Championships/Sports Management Cabinet and as a member of the Executive Committee of the Division I-A Athletic Directors' Association.

Prior to assuming his current roles at Arkansas, Long served for four years as the athletic director at the University of Pittsburgh. Long redefined Pitt athletics, most notably through the "Quest for Excellence" campaign that raised nearly $34 million to enhance the student-athlete experience. During his tenure, the program was selected No. 17 in the nation in the 2006 Sports Illustrated on Campus' All-Sport Rankings.

Before arriving at Pitt, Long was senior associate athletic director at Oklahoma for two and a half years overseeing external affairs for the Sooners. In addition, Long was the primary administrator for the Sooners' highly successful football and men's basketball programs, along with sport supervision of baseball, wrestling and both golf teams.

Long's first appointment as a director of athletics was at Eastern Kentucky where he served for two and a half years. Prior to Eastern, Long had a brief stay with Virginia Tech as an associate athletics director.

He began his career in college athletic administration at Michigan, hired by legendary coach and athletics director, the late Bo Schembechler. During his seasons with the Wolverines, Long was promoted through a series of posts to the position of associate athletics director.

A former two-sport athlete at Ohio Wesleyan, Long earned seven varsity letters for the Bishops in football and baseball before completing his degree in economics in 1982. He started his post-graduate career in athletics working on head coach Tom Reed's staff as a graduate assistant football coach at the cradle of coaches, Miami University of Ohio. Long earned his master's in education at Miami in 1983, moving on to football staff positions at Rice, Duke and N.C. State prior to joining Michigan.

An Ohio native from Kettering, Long is married to the former Fanny Gellrich of Ann Arbor, Mich. The Longs have two daughters, Stephanie and Christina. In spring 2016, Stephanie graduated Summa Cum Laude with two degrees from the Fulbright College of Arts and Sciences. She is currently enrolled in graduate school at the University of Arkansas. Christina is a freshman journalism student at the University of Missouri.

A MESSAGE FROM CHANCELLOR STEINMETZ

I know touchdowns generally get the loudest cheers but when I call the Hogs it's also in support of an athletics program that achieves at the highest levels in the classroom — and on the field — supports our academic mission and is financially self-sustaining.

Razorback Athletics is one of the nation's few financially self-sustaining athletics programs and does not receive state funding or student fees. In fact, Razorback Athletics helps support the university's academic mission by contributing more than $3.5 million a year to the institution for academic programs and other initiatives benefitting University of Arkansas students. Your great fan support combined with the careful management of resources allows the department to be self-sustaining. That's something all Razorback fans should be proud of.

We are equally proud of the success of our student-athletes in the classroom. They set a new program record with a combined GPA of 3.25 last spring and have extended their streak to 15 consecutive semesters with an average cumulative GPA of 3.0 or more. Our student-athletes also devote a great deal of time volunteering on campus and in the region.

Razorback Athletics was recognized again this year as one of the nation's most successful intercollegiate athletics programs, ranking No. 20 in the Learfield Directors' Cup, finishing in the Top 25 for the eighth time in 10 years. Even more impressive to me, Arkansas ranks second among schools with 19 sports or fewer.

All this makes me wish I could join the team and run through the "A"!

On behalf of the University of Arkansas, thank you for your passionate support of the Razorbacks.

Go Hogs!

JOSEPH E. STEINMETZ
CHANCELLOR

Joseph E. Steinmetz became the sixth chancellor of the University of Arkansas on January 1, 2016. Prior to this appointment, he was Ohio State's chief academic officer. As executive vice president and provost, he oversaw the administration, coordination, and development of all academic functions of the university.

Dr. Steinmetz joined Ohio State in 2009 to serve as vice provost for arts and sciences and executive dean of the then-new College of Arts and Sciences. With his leadership, the former five independent colleges of arts and sciences were unified into the largest arts and sciences college in the country.

Before Ohio State, Dr. Steinmetz was dean of the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences at the University of Kansas, where he was also a university distinguished professor. Before Kansas, Dr. Steinmetz spent 19 years at Indiana University, Bloomington where he served as Chair of the Department of Psychology, Executive Associate Dean of Arts and Sciences and a Distinguished Professor of Psychological and Brain Science.

A nationally respected behavioral neuroscientist, Dr. Steinmetz was recognized in 1996 by the National Academy of Sciences for his contributions to the fields of experimental psychology and neuroscience. In 2012 he was named an AAAS Fellow.

His research interests include neuroanatomical and neurophysiological substrates of learning and memory; the effects of alcohol on neural and behavioral function; neurobiological and behavioral models of fetal alcohol syndrome; and the neurobiology of simple human learning, memory, and cognitive function.

Dr. Steinmetz earned his bachelor's and master's degrees at Central Michigan University and his doctorate at Ohio University. He and his wife, Sandy, have two sons and four grandchildren.

GERALD JORDAN
FACULTY ATHLETICS REPRESENTATIVE

Gerald Jordan, associate professor of journalism, worked 25 years for metropolitan daily newspapers before he joined the UofA faculty. His appointment as the faculty athletics representative marks a return to his start as a student covering the Razorbacks.

Like his predecessor Dr. Sharon Hunt, Jordan is an Arkansas alumnus and he becomes only the fourth UofA faculty member to fill this position. Chancellor Joe Steinmetz appointed Jordan to be the faculty member who certifies the eligibility of student-athletes and will be the university's faculty representative to the NCAA and the Southeastern Conference.

Jordan graduated from the University of Arkansas in 1970 with a degree in journalism, and earned his master's degree in journalism at Northwestern University in 1971. He was a 1982 Nieman Fellow at Harvard University.

Jordan began his career as a sports reporter for The Kansas City Star, where he subsequently wrote editorials and was a TV columnist. He wrote editorials for The Boston Globe. At The Philadelphia Inquirer, Jordan was a reporter, a Washington correspondent and worked as an editor in several departments before joining the journalism faculty. He returned to The Inquirer as an editor for 15 summers. He also worked two summers on News21, a national investigative journalism project at the Walter Cronkite School, Arizona State University.

Jordan has been an innovative teacher, developing the Digital Media Lab, a semester block of journalism courses designed to provide intensive teaching and training for a limited number of students in a realistic multimedia news environment. He also helped create the Lemke Journalism Project, which has brought minority high school students interested in journalism to the university for the past 17 years.

Jordan served as president of the Arkansas Alumni Association Board of Directors, and he is the founding leader of two alumni societies for U of A graduates.

He received the UofA's Silas Hunt Legacy Award in 2010, and a Lifetime Achievement Award from the Northwest Arkansas Martin Luther King Jr. Planning Committee.

He was also the first faculty member to receive the university's national award as Volunteer of the Year.

As the U of A faculty athletics representative Jordan will work closely with the athletics department, be involved with the student-athlete advisory council, in addition to attending SEC and NCAA meetings.

"Gerald Jordan is an esteemed member of the University of Arkansas faculty and is well respected by his peers throughout the country," said Jeff Long, vice chancellor and director of athletics. "He knows our institution and he knows the demands our student-athletes face balancing their academic requirements and competing in the strongest conference in the nation. Gerald will be a great representative of the University of Arkansas both within the SEC and nationally."

The A Club's mission is to create and foster enduring relationships with former Razorback student-athletes in all sports to facilitate a continued connection with Razorback Athletics and the University of Arkansas.

By cultivating a strong, active and diversified membership, the A Club will pursue its core purpose of making a significant difference in the lives of current and former student-athletes while strengthening the Razorback spirit and further bolstering the tradition of Razorback Athletics. The A Club also provides financial support to ensure a successful and competitive future for Razorback Athletics.

For more information on the A Club, please visit www.razorbackfoundation.com/AClub.aspx or call 479.443.9102

The A Club appreciates and thanks all current members for their support, especially the former student-athletes below who have gone above and beyond in their support of the A Club with lifetime memberships.

RAZORBACK CLUBS

Twenty-two Razorback Clubs uphold the mission of the Razorback Foundation. These non-profit clubs hold regular meetings throughout the year that feature University of Arkansas coaches, staff and administrators. Each club hosts fundraisers to support the Razorback student-athletes and foster camaraderie among the Razorback Nation.

The Razorback Foundation appreciates the contributions of those who serve in volunteer leadership positions for each club. The Presidents and their boards, along with all volunteers, allow us to connect in a meaningful manner with those who love the Razorbacks and support the Razorback Foundation in a variety of ways. Contact information for all Razorback Clubs may be found at razorbackfoundation.com.

ABOUT THE FOUNDATION

The mission of The Razorback Foundation, Inc. is to raise private gift support for Razorback Athletics at the University of Arkansas. The Foundation assists our student-athletes by providing financial support for scholarships, facilities and various programs that enable them to realize their dreams of achieving a quality college education while participating in athletics on a nationally competitive level.

WHY WE NEED YOUR HELP

Through contributions from our members, we are able to provide scholarship support for more than 460 student-athletes, funding for facility enhancements and financial assistance to other programs designed to elevate student-athletes and Arkansas Athletics.

Being an active Foundation member is not only an investment in our athletic program and in the athletic and academic success of our student-athletes, it also unlocks many special benefits to you. These benefits include priority access to season tickets, single-game tickets, parking, priority points, membership thank you packet, invitations to exclusive member-only events, and more!

JOIN TODAY

There is no better way to support Razorback Athletics than to contribute to the Razorback Foundation Annual Fund. Your gift, no matter the size, will significantly impact the life of every Razorback student-athlete. Gifts may be made outright or via automatic payment plans. The Foundation also offers a Collegiate Membership Program for current University of Arkansas students as well as a Young Alumni Program for recent graduates.

For more information about membership levels, benefits and other giving opportunities, please contact us at 877-436-0013 or gohogs@razorbackfoundation.com. More information may be found at razorbackfoundation.com.

ARKANSAS ROADHOGS

These automobile dealers assist the Razorback Athletic Department by providing courtesy vehicles to Arkansas coaches and administrators. These vehicles enhance the work of Razorback coaches and staff as they recruit and conduct important business around the State and region. The automobile program is an integral part of Razorback Athletics and their generous contribution is greatly appreciated. For more information on how you may become involved in the Arkansas Roadhogs, please call 479-443-9000.

For decades, Razorback Athletics has enjoyed a position of national prominence in college sports. No two individuals have been more instrumental for this success than Frank Broyles and Wilson Matthews. In 1989, the Broyles-Matthews Scholarship was established to honor these two Razorback Legends.

Broyles, the long-time coach and Director of Athletics, put Razorback football on the map. Matthews, the valued assistant coach and administrator, pioneered the Razorback Scholarship Fund which enables the Razorbacks to compete with the best.

In 2007, the Broyles-Matthews Scholarship was renamed and divided into three annual membership levels: Broyles-Matthews Platinum ($20,000+), Broyles-Matthews Gold ($10,000-19,999) and Broyles-Matthews Silver ($5,000-9,999). These gifts, as well as ALL gifts to the Annual Fund are instrumental to the continued success of Razorback Athletics.

GREG SANKEY
COMMISSIONER
SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE

Greg Sankey became the eighth commissioner of the Southeastern Conference on June 1, 2015, and quickly engaged in building upon the SEC's strong foundations and rich traditions.

Sankey is a modern-day administrator whose focus on innovation, communication, integrity and responsibility establishes a model for leadership in college sports today. Always with an eye on the future, Sankey is also keenly aware of the competitive and institutional traditions that make the SEC uniquely successful.

Sankey brings a big picture approach to his position by introducing a vision that positions the SEC to leverage its athletics success and popularity for a greater overall cultural and economic impact on the region, the nation and the world.

ADVOCATING FOR STUDENT–ATHLETE OPPORTUNITY

Now in his third year at the helm of the SEC, Sankey has established himself as an advocate for the student-athlete, creating a framework to provide young people in the Conference with new leadership opportunities and resources to succeed at the highest levels of academic achievement and competitive success. New student-athlete focused initiatives under Sankey's leadership include:

- Creating a new position in the SEC office for a Director of Student-Athlete Engagement, while also offering student-athletes the opportunity to participate in Conference leadership and prepare for life after their intercollegiate athletics participation concludes. (August 2015)
- Introducing Student-Athlete Leadership Councils for Football, Men's Basketball and Women's Basketball which, in addition to the Conference's longstanding Student-Athlete Advisory Committee, provide student-athletes with additional opportunities to engage with campus leaders and Conference office staff. (May 2016)
- Introducing a Student-Athlete Career Tour during SEC Football Championship Week in Atlanta, which provided a group of student-athletes opportunities to engage in career exploration with high level corporations and businesses. (December 2016)
- Expanding the student-athlete role at the 2017 SEC Spring Meetings when seven student-athletes participated in a robust agenda of interaction with administrators and coaches to provide their perspectives to Conference leaders. (May 2017)

ADVANCING THE CONFERENCE

Upon assuming the role of commissioner, Sankey moved swiftly to address issues critical to college athletics on both the Conference and national levels.

- Appointed a Working Group on Student-Athlete Conduct, a collection of campus leaders established to develop recommendations for updated Conference policies governing behavioral expectations for student-athletes transferring to an SEC institution. The SEC's policy, adopted in 2016, served as a model for similar policies subsequently adopted by other conferences and institutions and also serves as a foundation for continuing dialogue in the SEC.
- Appointed a Working Group on Compliance, Enforcement and Governance, designed to review and update principles which form the foundation of the Conference membership's commitment of adherence to SEC and NCAA rules, which were first developed in 2004.

Sankey set a priority to enhance Conference championship events for the purpose of providing student-athletes with life-long memories and exceptional experiences for fans, which has included:

- Establishing an agreement with Atlanta's new Mercedes Benz Stadium to serve as the long-term home for the SEC Football Championship Game. (September 2015)
- Awarding Greenville, SC, the 2017 SEC Women's Basketball Tournament, making it the first major collegiate sporting event to be announced in South Carolina following removal of the Confederate flag from the state capitol grounds. (May 2016)
- Reaching agreement with the City of Hoover, AL, to continue its role as host of the SEC Baseball Tournament after the city committed to construction of a $70 million baseball campus to enhance the entire baseball tournament experience. (June 2016)
- Engaging with a security consulting firm to review and develop consistent and effective security plans for SEC Championship events. (August 2016)

Sankey has continued the development of Conference officiating with a series of measures blending technology with effective leadership to create greater accuracy and consistency for officiating in all sports, including:

- Working with the NCAA to gain approval for a collaborative instant replay process in the sport of football, which was implemented successfully beginning with the Fall 2016 season. (May 2016)
- Working with the American Athletic and Atlantic Sun conferences to create a men's basketball officiating consortium, later adding the Sun Belt Conference. (July 2016)
- Working with the NCAA to gain approval for a collaborative instant replay process in the sport of men's basketball beginning with the 2017-18 season. (May 2017)
- Hiring new coordinators of officials in the sports of men's basketball and softball.

Another priority under Sankey's leadership is to grow exposure for the Conference and effectively publicize success stories of the SEC. Measures he has taken include:

- Collaborating with Conference institutions and the SEC Network to create a series of 30-second video spots titled "I Am The SEC," which feature compelling off-the-field stories of SEC student-athletes in all sports that air during SEC Network events throughout the academic year.
- Engaging with The Richards Group, a highly successful national marketing agency, to develop a comprehensive branding campaign to positively feature the SEC, its student-athletes, alumni, leaders and fans. The theme of the campaign – "It Just Means More" – communicates the history, legacy and overall positive impact the SEC has on its region, the nation and the world.
- Introducing the SEC Graduate Patch, a logo placed on the uniforms of SEC student-athletes in every sport who have earned their undergraduate degree and are continuing their participation in intercollegiate athletics.
- Working with the SEC Network to create unique exposure opportunities for Conference universities, teams and student-athletes, including behind-the-scenes programming, expanding live championship coverage for Olympic Sports, covering all spring football games and adding unique coverage of halftime band performances in football.

A CAREER IN COLLEGE ATHLETICS

Sankey, 53, first joined the SEC staff in 2002 as Associate Commissioner for Governance, Enforcement and Compliance and later added supervision of the league's championships staff to his responsibilities. He was elevated to Executive Associate Commissioner and Chief Operating Officer for the league office in 2012, becoming responsible for the day-to-day operation of the SEC Office.

Sankey is active within the NCAA committee structure, which includes his current service as Chair of the NCAA Division I Committee on Infractions.

Prior to joining the SEC staff, Sankey was Commissioner of the Southland Conference for nearly seven years. He joined the Southland Conference staff in 1992 where he served as both assistant and associate commissioner before he was named commissioner in 1996 at the age of 31.

Prior to his term at the Southland Conference, he was Director of Compliance and Academic Services at Northwestern State University in Natchitoches, LA. While at Northwestern State, Sankey also coached the Demons' golf teams for two years, earning the Golf Coaches Association of America District VI Coach of the Year award in 1991. Before his tenure at Northwestern State, he was the Director of Intramural Sports at Utica College in upstate New York.

A native of Auburn, NY, Sankey earned his master's degree from Syracuse University and his undergraduate degree from the State University of New York College at Cortland. Sankey and his wife, Cathy, reside in Birmingham, AL, and have two adult daughters, Hannah and Moriah.

SEC NETWORK

The Southeastern Conference and ESPN signed a 20-year agreement through 2034 to create and operate a multiplatform network which launched August 14, 2014. The television network and its digital companion SEC Network + carry more than 1,500 events annually. SEC Network televises over 45 SEC football games, 100 men's basketball games, 60 women's basketball games, 75 baseball games, and other events from across the SEC's 21 sports annually. Programming includes in-depth analysis and storytelling in studio shows, daily news and information with SEC Now, original content such as SEC Storied and SEC Inside, and more. Hundreds of additional live events are offered exclusively on SEC Network+ via WatchESPN and SECNetwork.com. The network is available on 9 of the top 10 cable providers in the US and is also available in more than 50 countries throughout Europe, Middle East and Africa via ESPN Player, ESPN's sports streaming service in the region.

The SEC's Western and Eastern Division winners meet in Atlanta's Georgia Dome to battle for the league championship and the right to represent the conference in the College Football Playoff. The 26th annual title game is set for Dec. 2 and will be nationally televised by CBS Sports. The game is a result of conference expansion, which saw Arkansas and South Carolina become the first members added in SEC history in 1992. Under NCAA regulations, a conference with 12 members may play a 12th football game to determine its champion, provided the regular season is played in divisions. The participants of the game are determined each year during the eight-game regular-season conference schedule as the teams with the best overall SEC winning percentage in each division.

ARKANSAS IN THE SEC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

2006: Florida 38, Arkansas 28

Florida scored a touchdown with nine minutes left in the game and held on for the 38-28 victory over Arkansas. Down 17-7 at the half, Arkansas took a 21-17 third-quarter lead on a two-yard reception by Felix Jones and a 40-yard interception return by Antwain Robinson. Arkansas could have had a chance to build on the lead, but the Gators recovered a fumbled punt in the end zone to move back in front 24-21 with 3:47 left in the third period. Percy Harvin, who scored on a 37-yard pass from Chris Leak in the second quarter, scored on a 67-yard run early in the fourth to put Florida up 31-21. Jones scored his second touchdown on a 29-yard pass from Cedric Washington to cut the margin to three. Darren McFadden finished with 73 yards on 15 carries and Jones 57 on 13. Casey Dick was 10-of-22 passing for 148 yards with a touchdown and two interceptions. Harvin had 105 yards on six carries for Florida, which went on to win the national title at 13-1, while Leak was 16-of-30 for 189 yards with a touchdown and two interceptions.

2002: Georgia 30, Arkansas 3

Georgia scored on its first five possessions for a 23-0 halftime lead and posted a 30-3 victory. Georgia claimed the SEC title just 75 miles from its Athens campus. Musa Smith rushed for 106 yards and two touchdowns. David Greene threw for 237 yards and a score, earning the game's MVP award. Terrence Edwards had seven catches for 92 yards, becoming the SEC's career leader in receiving yards. Arkansas had won six in a row to earn its second trip to the league championship game. The Razorbacks had a punt blocked by Decory Bryant on their first possession and Thomas Davis scooped up the loose ball and ran to the Arkansas 2-yard line. On Georgia's next possession, Smith, who scored after the blocked punt, finished off the drive with a 17-yard scoring run. Georgia's next three possessions ended with field goals by Billy Bennett, who connected from 29, 42 and 39 yards to provide the halftime margin. Arkansas led the SEC in rushing offense with an average of 243 yards per game but managed just 65 against Georgia. Fred Talley, a 1,000-yard rusher, was held to 51 yards on 17 carries while Matt Jones managed only 12 yards on nine carries. Jones completed 9-of-17 passes for 60 yards.

1995: Florida 34, Arkansas 3

A prime-time (ABC) television audience and a sell-out crowd (71,325) in the Georgia Dome saw Florida post a 34-3 victory. Florida out-gained Arkansas by only 97 yards, 396-299, but the Gators committed no turnovers while Arkansas lost the ball four times. Arkansas got on the scoreboard first when Todd Latourette kicked a 36-yard field goal with 7:26 left in the first quarter. The Razorbacks were dealt some bad news on that drive, however. Sophomore running back Madre Hill, who finished third in the conference in rushing, was lost for the game with a knee injury.
